Miss Susanna from Urbana.

(Dave.)

Introduction.
Tempo di Schottische.

1. There's a dainty little maiden, and she's cute as she can be, Lives in a town of small renown. She has captured all the Brum-mels of the shy, I'll tell you why. For her date book's over crowded and she town's so-ci-e-ty, She's on the brain of ev-ery swain; When she won't al-low a call un-less they own a tel-e-phone; All day sings they flock a-round her just to show how well they know, That she's the long she hears the mer-ry ting-a-ling a-ling a-ling, From beaux ga-round the old piano, While the other girls in jealousy cry out: "Oh fudge!"

but it's accidental, For she has a string upon the manager: "Hello!"

CHORUS.

Miss Susanna from Urbana, Quite a cultivated lassie, you'll all agree.

Miss Susanna from Urbana.
Z—— All the neighbors say that she can play That song Ta-ra-ra-Boom-de-aye, In such a fine artistic way, They're going to move the first of May, When she tackles old Beethoven, And then wrestles with De-Koven, There is always something doing in Urbana. Miss Susanna.
