MISSION STATEMENT:

To provide public information, process publication requests, file agency rules, publish the Arizona Administrative Code and the Arizona Administrative Register, and publish statutorily mandated and other informational publications and documents while serving the public efficiently and professionally.

DEPARTMENT DESCRIPTION:

The Public Services Division files and publishes the rules of the state’s agencies in quarterly supplements to the Arizona Administrative Code and in the weekly Arizona Administrative Register; reproduces for public distribution chapter laws as passed by the legislature and signed by the Governor, prepares and prints most of the publications for the Office of the Secretary of State including: the state constitution; the residential and the mobile home landlord and tenant acts; the Arizona Notary Public Handbook; the legislative directory; the Arizona Blue Book; and numerous other documents, pamphlets, and booklets.

The Division maintains both paper and electronic (online) versions of publications. Both the paper and electronic publications are produced in-house saving taxpayer dollars.

The Public Services Division supports the other SOS divisions in preparation and printing of publications, office documents and public records, and special projects. The Division processes the mail for the Secretary of State’s Office.

The Public Services Division files the notices of the Governor’s appointments to the state’s boards and commissions; files loyalty oaths for the Governor’s appointments and judges; and maintains subscriptions to the Arizona Revised Statutes under A.R.S. § 41-123, Arizona Reports under A.R.S. § 12-108, subscriptions to Chapter Laws, and subscriptions to the Code and Register.

Fiscal Year 2002 - Reorganization

The Division staff made numerous significant improvements to publications and improved the processing of documents in FY ’02.

New procedures were established in January 2002 by the Acting Director. These include maintenance of a new logging system for loyalty oaths; surplus of obsolete state property; creation of office job manuals for staff reference; establishment of file structures and archiving procedures for 13 years of rulemaking packages in storage; establishment of new procedures and an electronic log for filed rules, incorporated by reference material, and miscellaneous material; creation of an online rules and miscellaneous log; creation of a new database for Chapter Laws that will become effective in FY ’03; archiving of 50 years of loyalty oaths; and creation of file structures for paper and electronic files.

This fiscal year the staff incorporated new procedures to archive and digitize 13 years of rulemaking filings. New procedures to maintain incorporated by reference material, loyalty oaths, and chapter laws were established. By FY ’03, 13 years of rules will be filed and made available online for public reference. An incorporated by reference library has been organized.

Subscriber lists were updated. Databases were created and updated with subscriber information for the Arizona Revised Statutes and Arizona Reports.

Subscribers maintained:

• 29 Arizona Revised Statutes subscriptions (complete sets and updates)
• 251 Arizona Reports Subscriptions (2 volumes per fiscal year)

Rules

The Division completed a long-awaited, total revision of the Office’s rules on rulemaking, which had not been updated in seven years. It is hoped that the final rules will be approved by the Attorney General’s Office in early 2003. The Division also completed an overhaul of the state’s rulemaking manual (dormant and outdated since 1995), which will help improve the accuracy and efficiency of the rulemaking process.

The total impressions made to produce the Arizona Administrative Register for the fiscal year was more than 1,417,500. The average page count for an Arizona Administrative Code supplement was 1,618, with more than 2 million, 112 thousand impressions made for publication during the fiscal year.
Support

During the fiscal year, the Administrative Code and Special Project editors supported the Election and Business Services Divisions, Computer Services, and Administration. This included review of press releases and media advisories.

The Special Projects editor supported other Office staff with the design of projects including: the maintenance of a press release area of Web page; support of the Project HomeSafe Campaign; META tagging of online publications; support to the Voter Outreach director with updates to the extreme voter guide; conveying press releases and marketing information to the media and public; posting office publications online; design of the Election Ballot Proposition Guide; and design of logos and animated gifs for special projects and the Secretary of State Web page.

Records Retention

The Division has filed and made available to the public the following actions of the Governor:

- 13 Executive Orders
- 388 Bills signed into law during the 1st Regular Session of the 45th Legislature

Publications

Most of the publications provided by the Secretary of State’s Office are printed in-house. Consistency between publications was established in FY ’01. In FY ’02 the new design was used on all Office publications. All of the publications are available online.
