The Ghost that never walked.

Words by WILLIAM JEROME.

Music by JEAN SCHWARTZ.

1. Don't shake with fear, as till ready.
2. On sal’ry day, they

I draw near, I'm just a harm-less creat-ure used to pray, that I'd make my ap-pear-ance

Don't think me wild. I'm weak and mild, For weak-ness is my fea-ture,
But rail-road fares, and emp-ty chairs, They caused an in-ter-fer-ence,

Show

International Copyright Secured. Copyright 1904, by Shapiro, Remick & Co. All Rights Reserved. have a little pity, and listen to my days are not all sunny, and don't think me too ditty, I'm not the great Elijah who heals funny, When I tell you I couldn't even

"Heels" in Zion City, pay them with stage money.

1st time SOLO.
2nd time CHORUS.

Ghost of a troupe that disbanded in Peoria
I'm the PIXIES.

Ghost of a troupe that disbanded in Peoria
He's the MALB.

He's the Ghost of a troupe

The Ghost &c. or-a, I'm the Ghost of a bunch that were only out for

Glory, Glory, Glory Hal-le-lu-jah, lu-jah,

Money never talked, In me you see a nov-el-ty I'm the Ghost that never walked. In the walked...

The Ghost &c., 3.