VOLUME 1
INDEX

VOLUME 2
ACQUISITION CORRESPONDENCE

VOLUME 3

GROUP I-63-1 thru GROUP I-63-7A

GROUP I 63:

5. Article Foreign Affairs - sent to Miss Haru Matsui, 219 West 14 St., N.Y. N.Y. (undated) - 11 p.

7A. Speech - Untitled Philharmonic Auditorium - Los Angeles, California, September 29, 1941 - Also Occidental College, November 5, 1971 - 21 p.

VOLUME 4

GROUP I 63-8 thru GROUP I-63-15

11. Lecture Notes (Untitled Undated) - 16 p.

VOLUME 5

GROUP I-63-16 thru GROUP I-63-23

18. The Future of China's War - Headquarters, Eighth Route Army (Red Army), Eastern Shansi Province, China, November 17, 1937 - (Notation Original sent to Moscow to "Pravda") - 3 p.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>No.</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>22.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled)</td>
<td>8 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>22A.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes - (Undated Untitled)</td>
<td>3 p.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VOLUME 6

Group I-63-24 thru GROUP I-63-35

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>No.</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>25.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes &quot;Chinese Loan Facts&quot; (Undated)</td>
<td>1 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>27.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes (Undated - Untitled)</td>
<td>9 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>30.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes (Undated - Untitled)</td>
<td>6 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>31.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled)</td>
<td>6 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>32.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled)</td>
<td>4 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>33.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes (Undated Untitled)</td>
<td>35 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>34.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes (Undated Untitled)</td>
<td>24 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>35.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes (Undated - Untitled)</td>
<td>10 p.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VOLUME 7

Group I-63-36 thru GROUP I-63-42

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>No.</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>36.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes - (Undated Untitled)</td>
<td>35 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>37.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes (Undated - Untitled)</td>
<td>5 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>39.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled)</td>
<td>5 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>40.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled)</td>
<td>1 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>41.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes &quot;China's Challenge To Us Is Asia's Challenge&quot;</td>
<td>4 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>42.</td>
<td>173 Division - Political Soldiers Training Course</td>
<td>34 p.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VOLUME 8

Group I-63-43 thru GROUP I-63-50

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>No.</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>43.</td>
<td>Lecture - University of Chicago, December 2, 1943 8:30 p.m.</td>
<td>32 p.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>44.</td>
<td>Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled)</td>
<td>4 p.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

47. Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled) 6 p.

48. Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled) 14 p.

49. Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled) 5 p.

50. Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled) 7 p.

VOLUME 9

GROUP I-63-51 thru GROUP I-63-63

51. Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled) 18 p.

52. Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled) 3 p.

54. Notes -- Comments about audiences at places lectures were presented (Undated - Untitled) - 6 p.

55. (2) Copies of letter from Dr. Walter Judd to Dr. Logan Roots of Hankow - Fenchow, Shansi, January 14, 1938 2 p.

59. Notes - (Undated - Untitled) 15 p.

60. Notes - (Undated - Untitled) 8 p.

61. Lecture - (Undated - Untitled) - 14 p. with printed attachment - Dr. Sun's Last Words to China.

62. Lecture Notes - (Undated - Untitled) 7 p.

63. Notes - (Undated - Untitled) 2 p.

VOLUME 10

GROUP II-64-1 thru GROUP II-64-5

GROUP II-64:

2. Far Eastern Bulletin

   Vol. II No. 27 July 9, 1949 - 7 p.
   Vol. II No. 34 August 27, 1949 7 p.

3. China Newsletter

   Vol. 1, No. 1 August 14, 1949 - 11 p.
   Vol. 1, No. 4 September 4, 1949 12 p.

4. Letters from Madame Sun Yat-Sen, received December 6, 1944 -- Miss Mildred Price - Executive Secretary China Aid Council - Mimeographed - 5 p.
5. Letters from Madame Sun Yat-Sen, received September 6, 1944

Miss Mildred Price - Executive Secretary China Aid Council
Mimeographed - 10 p.

VOLUME 11

GROUP II-65:

1. The University of Chicago Round Table - Crisis In China September 2, 1945.

Table of Contents:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Hands Off China</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tillman Durdin</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>U.S.A. Leaning Toward Chiang in Chinese Row</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alexander H. Uhl</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>China Political Strife Heads to Showdown</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Agnes Smedley</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Fate of the World is at Stake in China</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Max Eastman &amp; J. B. Powell</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What is the Truth About China</td>
<td>18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Walter H. Judd</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Must China Go Red?</td>
<td>45</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Edgar Snow</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>China and Its Critics</td>
<td>55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lin Yutang</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Freedom Bloc in Asia</td>
<td>62</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Owen Lattimore</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

VOLUME 12

GROUP II-66-1 thru GROUP II-66-30

GROUP II-66:

16. World Events Interpreted by Scott Nering - Vol. 1, No. 11.

17. Article "Inside China" by Anna Louise Strong, New Masses, Vol. XXXVII, No. 13, March 18, 1941, p. 3-10.

30. Article "Yenan, 1945 by Pacificus" -- The Nation.

VOLUME 13

GROUP II-66-31 thru GROUP II-66-40

31. 15 pages miscellaneous notes - (Undated - Untitled).

32. 7 pages miscellaneous notes - (Undated - Untitled).

34. "Conversations with George Bernard Shaw" (Undated) - 21 p. Although Agnes Smedley's name does not appear as the author it seems likely that she was -- The style and corrections and changes which seem to be in her handwriting would indicate that she was the author. This, however, will take time to determine.

35. 16 clips  The Sages Say -- From Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury.

40. 10 p. miscellaneous lecture notes (Undated - Untitled).

VOLUME 14

GROUP III-67-1 thru GROUP III-68-7

GROUP III 67:

5. Plea to Truman by Miss Smedley.

GROUP III-68:

4. Letter to Miss Smedley - June 20, 1944 from Wang Yong, 627 Walnut (sic) Lane, Haverford, Penna.

VOLUME 15

GROUP IV 69-1 thru GROUP IV-70 1

GROUP IV-69:

1. "The Light of East Asia Observations in England's Colony of Hong Kong" Agnes Smedley Published in The Clipper (date not shown).

1B. "Hong Kong Conditions-Social Problems Discussed by An American Observer - Wealth, Poverty, and Disease" - S. China Morning Post - Sept. 21, 1940.

2. Letter to the Editor - The Christian Century - Paul G. Hayes "Communists Murdered the Stams" refutation of statement by Agnes Smedley, October 9, 1935.

4. News Clip - "Japanese Demands French Submission to Passage of Troops" South China Morning Post, September 26, 1940.

6. "Political Training in the Chinese Armies, Interesting Lecture by Miss Agnes Smedley" - Hong Kong Daily Press, November 12, 1940.

8. "China's Stumme Helden" - reprint in German from article in China Weekly Review.

16. News Clip: Chinese Newspaper Hong Kong Lih Pao, December 11, 1940, Agnes Smedley lecture University of Hong Kong.

20. "Woman of Sorrows" by Vera Lesik - Magazine Digest p. 49-53 (No Date.)

22. "Miss Agnes Smedley" - S.C.M. Post, August 29, (1941?).

23. Hong Kong Sunday Herald - March 9, 1941 - News Clip no headline.

27. Clip - Chinese Digest, San Francisco, March - (1937?).

29. "Life" - "Asia" Spread Picture of Chinese Reds" (Undated - Unidentified as to source of the clip.)

33. Portion of magazine clip - date March 1934 pertaining to Aguinaldo of the Philippines. (See
34. "Vignettes From China" by Agnes Smedley  Partisan Review, New York - Undated.

GROUP IV-70:

VOLUME 16

GROUP IV-71:

2. One small photograph of unidentified Chinese boy seated at table with pen. (Missing).

VOLUME 17

GROUP V-72-1 thru GROUP V-72 2

GROUP V-72:

1. Far East Bulletin - News and Views From China: Published Kuosin News Agency, P.O. Box 1629, Kowloon, Hong Kong.

   #25  1st January, 1941  6 p.
   #35  1st June, 1941  6 p.
   #37  1st July, 1941  6 p.
   #38  15th July, 1941  6 p.
   #39  1st August, 1941  6 p.
   #40  15th August, 1941  5 p.
   #41  1st September, 1941  6 p.
   #42  15th September, 1941  6 p.
   #43  1st October, 1941  5 p.
   #44  15th October, 1941  6 p.
   #45  1st November, 1941  6 p.
   #46  15th November, 1941  5 p.

2. China Defence League Newsletter - Issued by the Central Committee of the China Defence League - 21, Seymour Road, Hong Kong.

   #15  New Series April 15, 1940  4 p.
   #30  New Series May 1, 1941  6 p.
   #33  New Series June 15, 1941  8 p.

VOLUME 18

GROUP V 72-3 thru GROUP V 72-10

3. Newsletter China Aid Council - Combined with American Committee For Chinese War Orphans.

   #39  December 4, 1940  5 p.
   #40  December 18, 1940  6 p.
   #41  January 1, 1941  5 p.

5. The East and West Association - Reprinted from ASIA and the AMERICAS Vol. 1, No. 8 - June, 1943. 4 p.

6. The East and West Association - Undated - 1 p. newsletter regarding Revised Schedule of Meetings: China and India: The People and Their Lands:
March 24: The Fighting Chinese: China and World War II.
   Agnes Smedley, for several years Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps Investigator on battle fronts; author of China Strikes Back.

       Vol. III, No. 1 Letter 32 May, 1946

       I. Report on the work of the Bethune International Peace Hospital at Yenan, 7 p.

       II. Report on the Central Hospital International Peace Hospital Section 1, 10 p.
           Report on the work of the Bethune IPH Section No. 3, 4 p.
           Southeast Shansi I.P.H. by Dr. Mueller, 5 p.

VOLUME 19

GROUP VI-73A-1 thru GROUP VI-73C-14

GROUP VI-73A:

6. Seghers, Von Anna, "Chinas Schlachtgesang - Betrachtungen Zum Buch von Agnes Smedley" (Book review but source not identified.)

7. "Eine Frau Kampf und schreibt fur China" (Book review of Agnes Smedley: Battle Hymn of China) AUFBAU, Friday, October 1, 1943.

GROUP VI-73 B:

1. Last letter from H. Osaki to his wife Tohyu - Prison, November, 1944.

GROUP VI-73 C:

3. Smedley, Agnes "China - Front Door to Freedom" California Arts and Architecture, April, 1942, p.17 et al.

4. Smedley, Agnes "China's Revolutionary Tradition" book review of A Short History of Chinese Civilization by Tsui Chi - The Nation, November 13, 1943.

12. Smedley, Agnes "Dirge For a Dead Hero" (Source of clipping unidentified.)

VOLUME 20

GROUP VI-73 C-15 thru GROUP VI-73 D-30

GROUP VI-73D:

News articles, lectures and forum reviews in which Agnes Smedley participated and some magazine articles.

12. "Chinese Fight For Democracy" Miss Agnes Smedley Speaks at High School Columbus, Georgia newsclip date and newspaper not identified.

16. "Author Will Speak Twice In County" (unidentified news clip).

17. Miss Smedley speaks on China at Discussion Group - Thursday, October 11, 1945 (Not otherwise identified).

19. "Author Miss Agnes Smedley recent speaker meeting of American Veterans Committee" - The Saratogian, Saratoga Springs, N.Y., Nov. 9, 1946.

23. "Yaddo Today" - The Profile, Skidmore College, December, 1944.

25. Lecture Announcement "Agnes Smedley -- China's Friend."

26. Lecture Announcement "Agnes Smedley War Correspondent - Volunteer In Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps." National Concert and Artists Corporation, N.Y., N.Y.

29. Undated Calendar of Events -- Jordan Hall.

30. Program Pupils of the Steinbach Studio at the Piano -- Chula Vista Woman's Clubhouse, G Street, March 16, 1947 -- inside circled is the name Mary Smedley.

VOLUME 21

GROUP VI 73D-31 thru GROUP VI-73D-83

32. Smedley, Agnes - "The Other Great War Resistance or Surrender in China"? - The Manchester Guardian, August 30, 1940.

33. Smedley, Agnes "China's Guerrilla Warfare" - American Woman Writer Describes Tactics of Armies in Lower Yangtze War-Torn Region Reprint from Manchester Guardian in Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury, Thursday, May 25 ----.

34. Smedley, Agnes "War Zone Tour -- Japanese Too Weak to Control in North - Behind Battle Lines" reprint from Manchester Guardian in South China Morning Post, April 13, 1940.

36. Lecture Program: China Fights on for Democracy -- Philharmonic Auditorium.

37. The Log - Foreign Trade Association of Southern California, Vol. 9, No. 49, Dec. 11, 1941 and No. 50, December 18, 1941, "Agnes Smedley - On Chinese Battlefields."

42. "U.S. Woman Relaying News From America" (Smedley's notation "about Dec. 1939) other wise source not identified.

43. "Agnes Smedley to Speak on Chinese Guerrilla Warfare" State Signal, State Teachers College at Trenton, New Jersey, Friday, June 18, 1943.

44. "Agnes Smedley calls CommandoRaids Theatrical and Predicts Resentment Over Appointment" (Mountbatten as supreme allied commander in Southeastern Asia). (Unidentified newsclip).

45. "War Correspondent Lectures on China" Massachusetts Guardian, Amherst, October 7, 1943.

52. Boutell, Clip, "No Life of Cabbage for Agnes" - Post Daily Magazine and Comic Section, New York Post, Wednesday, September 8, 1943.

53. Smedley, Agnes, "No Sacrifice - No Victory" Vogue, April 15, 1942.

55. Battle Hymn of China Author Visits Saratoga; Will Lecture at Skidmore - The Saratogian, Saratoga Springs, N.Y., September 8, 1943.

57. "Miss Smedley Calls Freedom Asia's Theme" - The Shanghai Evening Post Mercury, October 29, 1943.

59. "Agnes Smedley, War Writer, To Be Wollaston Speaker" Quincy Patriot-Ledger, Wollaston, Massachusetts, January 24, 1944.

64. "White Author Indignant Over Southern Prejudice" - Los Angeles Tribune, Monday, February 21, 1944.

67. "China Aid For Red Cross" The Times-Picayune, New Orleans, La., March 26, 1944.

70. "Battle Hymn of China Author Discusses War Goals" The Saratogian, Saratoga Springs, N.Y. April 18, 1944.

71. Smedley, Agnes, "God Damned Those White Southerners" - Afro-American, July 29, 1944.

71B. "I Passed Through the South Like a Traitor" - by Florence Murray - People's Voice Sept. 9, 1944.

72. Smedley, Agnes, "Guerrilla Court Martial" - Town & Country, April, 1942.

77. Agnes Smedley - Letter to lead off Reader's Forum (unidentified) (Missing.)

80. "Miss Smedley Replies" - The Nation, December 16, 1944.

81. Lecture Program -- United Office and Professional Workers of America, CIO "Agnes Smedley, Lecturer and Author of Battle Hymn of China -- The Chinese Partisans and the Eighth Route Army." (Undated).

GROUP VI-73E:

2. Freda Utley, "With the Embattled People of China" book review of Battle Hymn of China by Agnes Smedley - Asia, October, 1943.

15. Agnes Smedley - Battle Hymn of China - The German American, N.Y. City, October, 1943.

23. Agnes Smedley - Battle Hymn of China, The Telegraph, Brisbane, Queensland Australia, March 6, 1944.
24. E.O. Lorimer, "Ten Years With the Chinese People" book review of Agnes Smedley's Battle Hymn of China.

27. Copy of reviews of Battle Hymn of China - Times Literary Supplement - December 2, 1944.

31. Review of Battle Hymn of China by Agnes Smedley - Dorothy Woodman for The New Statesman and Nation April 1, 1944.

35. Book review of China by Eleanor D. Breed substituting for Joseph Henry Jackson in Bookman's Notebook of the San Francisco Chronicle, December 14, 1946. Harley Farnsworth MacNair was general editor for China published by the University of California Press - Agnes Smedley is quoted.

5. Precis - Government statement issued January 8, 1941 by Ho Ying Chin, Chief of General Staff and Pai Chung-hsi, Deputy Chief of General Staff - 4 p. Typed copy.

GROUP VII-74-10B thru GROUP VII 74-26

14. "The Kuomintang - Communist Crisis in China" by Anna Louise Strong.

"Autobiography of General Yeh Ting" by Asiaticus.
"China's Internal Friction Aids Japan" by Asiaticus.
"An Interview with Chou En-lai" by Robert W. Barnett.
(The foregoing three printed articles possibly are from Amerasia but identifications are missing.)

15. Translation of a big Poster put up in occupied China by the Japanese Commander. (In the Guerrilla regions) typewritten - 1 p.

17. Koreans Marching Towards National Revolution - Published by The Publicity Board of The Korean National Revolutionary Union.

20. Song Sheets --

Guerrilla People's Song
Welcoming Miss Smedley
Our Duty by Sheen Gen-Cheng
Fifth Army Song
Fighting for Victory Song
The Last Sacrifice for Existence
21. Extracts from an article from a regimental guerrilla newspaper about Miss Smedley's arrival in that region -- typewritten, 1 p.

23. The Battle of Tue Toe by Lee Bin Sin - typewritten carbon copy 12 p.

25. News-letter - All India Congress Committee - Swaraj Bhawan, Allahabed (India) Foreign Department, New Series No. 4, 23rd March, 1946 11 p.

VOLUME 25

GROUP VIII-75-1 thru GROUP VIII-75-27

GROUP VIII-75:

7. "War Making Japan Strong" - "Woman Reporter Back From China" (not identified.)

#25 1st January, 1941
#37 1st July, 1941
#40 15th August, 1941
#41 1st September, 1941
#45 1st November, 1941

9. AGNES SMEDLEY PHOTOGRAPHS:

Photos by Rosa We Her

1 Matte finished portrait in folder 8" x 10" photo size - folder 10½" x 14" (Agnes Smedley in Chinese style dark dress with embroidery- looking up.)

1 5" x 7" glossy print - same dress -- Miss Smedley looking down in reflective pose.

1 5" x 7" glossy print - same dress - Miss Smedley looking to the side.

1 Gustave Lorey Studio photo vignette print of Miss Smedley 7½" x 10" - Do not print without credit.

1 5" x 6" glossy print - Miss Smedley in Military type blouse in front of bulletin board -- she is looking down.

1 The Halloran Beacon photographer talking to wounded U.S. soldiers, Halloran Base Hospital, Staten Island, New York.

1 Headquarters of Chinese New Fourth Army showing captured Japanese war trophies (see Volume 35-Group XII-80 for some Agnes Smedley was given.)

1 Window display by Scribner's Advertising Agnes Smedley's
Battle Hymn of China - Credit line should be given to Worsinger Photo, New York.

6. Different snapshots of Agnes Smedley in garden at Yaddo. Some with unidentified Chinese friends.

10. 1 Snapshot - Dr. Skinsness, of Kioshan, Honan, China.

11. 1 Snapshot - Li Ming - November 1940 (Small Chinese boy)

12. 1 Snapshot - British sailors from seven torpedo boats escaped from Hong Kong after Colony fell to Japanese. Here is a group in Chinese guerrilla uniform with British helmets. They were taken through the Japanese lines by Chinese guerrilla.

13. 1 Snapshot - David M. MacDougall of the British Ministry of Information escaped from Hong Kong with over 70 British and Chinese citizens. He was wounded. Chinese reporters interviewed him in Waichow.

14. 1 Photograph - unidentified Chinese man.

15. 1 Photograph signed to Miss Agnes Smedley your sincere friend - Robert Lowe.

16. 1 Photograph 11" x 14" - unidentified man.

17. 1 5" x 7" unidentified photograph of a small girl. Photographer - Jerry Meyer - 100 Ft. Washington Ave., N.Y.C. WA-7-3461.

18. 2 5" x 7" unidentified photographs - one of a young boy and one of a young girl in same folder.

19. 1 8" x 10" photo folder of young boy and young girl.

20. 1 7h" x 9h" photo of Lt. Col. Evans F. Carlson inscribed: 'To Agnes the unremitting crusader for Democracy with deep affection - Evans - (Undated).

21. 1 Litho print of portrait of Lt. Col. Evans F. Carlson by Chadorow '44.

26. 1 unidentified snapshot of Chinese building.

27. National Concert and Artists Corporation announcing Agnes Smedley Lecture Topics - Undated.

VOLUME 26

GROUP IX-76-1 thru GROUP X-78-8

GROUP IX-76:

1. Minutes of Meeting of Steering Committee of National Citizens Political Action Committee -- Commodore Hotel, 11:00 a.m. April 13, 1946 (mimeographed) 4 p.

3. Resolutions Adopted by The National Citizens Political Action Committee Steering Committee at its meeting on April 13, 1946. 2 p. (Mimeographed).

GROUP X-78:

3. Three different handbills distributed by the New 4th Army (China) among Japanese troops in China in the Japanese language.

4. Newspaper, on poor paper, the Chief Daily of the 8th Route Army Headquarters in Northwestern China. Its title is "Liberation Daily" - referred to in Luce's Life as the Emancipation Daily, of date Aug. 29, 1942.

   X 78-5 Poster "Ten Man Group" Anti Japanese Organization in Central Hypeh. The Ten Man Group must be militant, Democratic and widespread.

   X-78-6 Song Book - Lu Hsun Youth School

   X-78-7 Communist Children's Reader

   X-78-8 Mao Tze Tung's Speech, November 15, 1941

VOLUME 27

GROUP X-78-9 thru GROUP X-78 32

X-78-9 DAWN, organ of the 8th Guerrilla Detachment of the New Fourth Army in North Anhwei Province along the Lunghai railway.

X-78-10 WAN PAO KMT Newspaper - Lihwang, Anhwei - October 21, 1939

X-78-11 WAN PAO KMT Newspaper - Lihwang, Anhwei - 1939

X-78-12 CHUN PAO - Organ of the 84th Army of the 11th Group Army - a Kwangsi Army.

X-78-15 Conflict in North China - 8th Route Army Report to Chiang Kai-Shek.

X-78-16 New Fourth Army Arm Badge - Words mean - Kang Di or Resistance.

X-78-17 Letter from Madame Chiang Kai-Shek to Agnes Smedley October 2, 1940.

X-78-18 In the guerilla region of China, Agnes Smedley collected patriotic songs set to old folk melodies. Most were written down for her in Chinese numerical notation.

X-78-19 Wu Wei Daily - Wu Weihsiien, Anhwei - September 8. Announcement of World War - First news of war Date: September 5.

X-78-20 Published Slogans for civilians to put up on their door on New Year's Day. FIGHT FOR THE SCHOOL - FOR THE ARMY.

Slogan for the house: "Lost Territory is not yet recovered. We should not talk of small things. National Revenge not yet achieved. Abandon selfish conflicts."

X-78-21 Three Block Prints

X-78-22 The New Fourth Army in south Anhwei published excellent pocket manuals for the use of their medical workers at the front. They were illustrated with wood-cuts.

X-78-23 Short Stories From China - Translated from the Chinese by Cze Ming-Ting. Had an Introduction by Agnes Smedley. Copy of front page.

X-78-24 "Indien Als Entscheidender Faktor Der Weltpolitik" by Agnes Smedley published in Zeitschrift Fur Geopolitik in 1950 - this article got Smedley admitted to PhD Program at University of Berlin.

X-78-25 Agnes Smedley-Friend of the Chinese People. Published in China in 1950 includes articles by Mao Tun, Ting Ling and others. Copies of sample pages.

X-78-26 Chia Wan Pao August 29, 1940 - Report of Speech by Agnes Smedley.

X-78-27 Hankow Herald - Chungking, China, September 28, 1939.

X-78-28 Smedley, Agnes: "Crisis in China: Defeat and Disunity P.M. 1944.

X-78-29 Smedley, Agnes: "Chungking Deals New Hand With Old Deck" Miss Smedley says Cabinet shift no help to China - P.M. Tuesday, November 21, 1944.

X-78-30 CHINA PRESS - December 21, 1924 "Missionary Believes that Central China Peasants will Support Nanking's Reconstruction. Work Masses Do Not Change In Spite of War, Disaster."

X-78-31 N.C.D.N. 1936 - "From Fushih." "Writing on Feb. 21 from Yenamfu (Fushih) where Communists have their headquarters in Shensi, Miss Agnes Smedley is good enough to correct what she believes was a statement in this journal to the effect that the British Church in Fushih had been burnt to the ground"..

GROUP X-78-33 thru GROUP X-78 75

X-78-34 Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury, October 1 --- "Kuomintang's Resolutions Rouse Hopes" by Randall Gould - Chungking (By Radio).

X-78-35 The China Weekly Review, May 20, 1939. Smedley, Agnes: "China's Refugee Millions, Stricken by Hunger and Disease, Call For Aid."

X-78-36 Two pages of shorthand notes dated June 7, 1940 with names Kunio Oyama, Seiji Ayukawa and Hayao Matsuyama at the top.

X-78-37 Two page statement concerning the Japanese People's Emancipation League.

X-78-38 THIS WEEK Magazine Section, June 9, 1940 Page 9. Photographic print with this caption: Guerilla Soldiers like these - men, women and children - keep actual Japanese control in China down to a minimum" by line Agnes Smedley.

X-78-39 Smedley, Agnes: "China's Communists letter to the Editor"-Los Angeles Times, August 13, 1941.

X-78-40 Unidentified magazine clip "The China Front."

X-78-41 The China Weekly Review, August 9, 1941 - "Sensational Disclosures of Japanese Intrigue in the United States."

X-78-42 Bellini, Mario: "Legitimacy in Government" Magazine article but source is not noted.

X-78 43 The Listener - July 9, 1942 London-B.B.C. "The Chinese Soldier" - Broadcast by the Bishop of Victoria, Hong Kong on July 7, 1942.

X-78-44 Star-Free Press - Ventura, California, September 15, 1942- "Editor, Crippled by Japs To Get County Greetings."

X-78-45 Smedley, Agnes: "China Has a Great Future, Author Tells Audience Here"--Undated unidentified news clip.

X-78-46 "Look At Rome Chung King" (an editorial of the Liberation Weekly, Yenan, August 21, 1943 - Mimeographed.

X-78-47 Shorthand notes written on portion of magazine page advertising President Liners - undated.

X-78-48 Seven pages of unidentified notes.

X-78-49 Unidentified pencil sketch of a Chinese shrine.

X-78-50 "Chiang Outlines Communist Stand" unidentified news clip, 1943.

X-78-51 Letter addressed Dear Angus from 872 Partridge, Menlo Park, California, September 30, 1943. Letter is not signed.

X-78-52 Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury, October 1, 1943 - "Out Where We Live" by Grace Cook - A feature concerning Agnes Smedley.
X-78-53 Unidentified News Clip: "Ojai Writer About to Publish Book."

X-78-54 The Boston Herald - Thursday, October 21, 1943. "Dictate Peace Says Author Speaking at Herald Book Fair."

X-78 55 Unidentified news clip: "British Alliance is Seen as Fascism - Pearl Buck Declares 'Empire' Doomed, Way to War."

X-78-56 Publisher's Weekly - not dated: mentions Battle Hymn of China.

X-78-57 Clip undated from United China Relief: "Mission Doctor Describes Plight of Bombed City."

X-78-58 Leader-Tribune - Fort Valley, Georgia, December 21, 1943: "Agnes Smedley at Fort Valley College Sunday."

X-78-59 Unidentified news clip dated December 8, 1943 "Our Pacific Relations."

X-78-60 Megaphone, George Town, Texas, December 16, 1943: "China War No Pushover Declares Agnes Smedley."

X-78-61 Mimeographed clip that leads off with "The Left Wing Labor (but anti-Stalinist) weekly Tribune looks at the British Tories: ...."

X-78 62 Unidentified news clip letter to the editor: "Crews of Flying Fortresses Admired by English Folk" August 19, 1943.

X-78-63 Unidentified news clip "Foreign Relations Council Will Hear Agnes Smedley on 'Democracy in China'."

X-78-64 Undated news clip The Boston Herald Annual Book Fair Section page 8 -- reviews Agnes Smedley's Battle Hymn of China.

X-78-65 Two pages of notes.

X-78-66 The Review of Politics - undated "China and the War" by Harley F. MacNair.

X-78-68 Unidentified news clip letter to the editor dated January 28, - - - concerns General Chiang Kai Shek and the New Fourth Army.

X-78-69 Unidentified and undated letter to the editor by Agnes Smedley.

X-78-71 P.M. February 9, 1944, "Movies" by John T. McManus discusses China Girl the movie in which Gene Tierney was the star.

X-78-72 Unidentified and undated news clip "Shift Code For Chinese Students In America" - AP release from Chungking.

X-78-74 World-Telegram news clip undated - article by Miriam Seane concerning Chiang Kai-Shek.

X-78-75 Unidentified news clip - "Communist-led Free Japan League."
Cleveland Plain Dealer, March 15, 1944. "Newspaper Woman Declares Civil War Threatens China."

March 21, 1944 - possibly news clip from Times Picayune at New Orleans: "Says Chinese Army Learning."

Typewritten Statement of May, 1944 concerning the League of Democratic Parties. 2 p.

Quincy Patriot Ledger, January 25, 1944. "China's Army Described by War Writer."

New Masses, August 29, 1944 "Behind China's Defeats" by R. B. Wilson.

The New Republic October 2, 1944 - incomplete review by Agnes Smedley.

Newsweek, November 13, 1944, "One Man's Fight Against Corruption: Story Behind the Stilwell Incident."

New York Herald Tribune, November 17, 1944, "Decisive Battle" only portion of the article.

The Nation, December 16, 1944 - Letter to the Editor by H. H. Chang and Miss Smedley's reply.

Nation undated - "In Far-Off Shensi The Dramatic Events."

One paragraph statement undated - unidentified -- concerning the military situation in China.

Catechism - Agnes Smedley's conversation with a 20 year old Chinese guerrilla fighter from Clipper sponsored lecture.

The Saratogian, Saratoga Springs, New York, December 30, 1944, news clip.
X-78-96  Undated, unidentified news clip: "Chinese Set-up and Crisis in Stillwell Case Are Explained."

X-78-98  Ten Leading Chinese Newspapers In North and South America Call For a National Coalition Government in China. Two page mimeograph statement.

X-78-100  Lakewood Log March 21, 1947. "An Outstanding Authority on China, Agnes Smedley, Caused in a Candid Pose as She Answers Questions ...."

X-78-101  "Advantages of Short Hair For Women" -- girl student in Scene I Act I might read out some of these lines 4 pages.

X-78-102  Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury undated - "Along the Burma Road."

X-78-103  Unidentified news clip "Reds In Yenan, Shensi at Peace With Party."

X-78-104  Page 2 of undated letter to Agnes Smedley from Elizabeth Selsbee.

X-78-105  Page 5-17 unidentified shorthand notes.

X-78-106  Poems and Songs from newspapers, magazines and wall newspapers. 3 pages.

X-78-107  To All Women In England, America, Italy, Germany, France, the U.S.S.R. and other countries a plea from: Women's National Salvation Association of Tiemenmen and Hanchuan Districts, Central Hupheh Province, China.

X-78-108  Unidentified half-sheet of mimeographed material concerning Chinese taxes and money.

X-78-109  Chinese Folk Song with musical notation.

X-78-110  Shorthand notes concerning J.B. Powell - 1 page.

VOLUME 30

GROUP X-78-111 thru GROUP XI 79-1

X-78-113  Agnes Smedley Co-authored a book with Lu Hsun on Kathe Kollwitz introducing her woodcuts and engravings. Published in Shanghai - 1936. Copy of front page.

X-78-116 Calling Cards in Chinese - from acquaintances and friends of Agnes Smedley.

X-78 117 P.M. October 10, 1944: Agnes Smedley -"Stillwell Scapegoat for Chiang's Defeat."

X-78-118 1 Page Lecture Notes.

GROUP XI-79:

1 - 42 pages of untitled four act play.

VOLUME 31

GROUP XI-79-2 thru GROUP XI 79 3G

XI-79-2 70 pages of notes concerning "A Play On China."

XI-79-3 A Play On China

b. Persons in the play - Two versions, 2 pages.
c. Production Note to Act I, 2 pages.
d. Prologue Before Act I, 4 pages.
e. Prologue, 5 pages.
g. Act I - Different version - 32 pages.

VOLUME 32

GROUP XI 79-3H thru GROUP XI-79-3K

H. Act I-Scene I Designated "Original" 16 p.
I. Act I Scene I - Production Notes and another version 24 p.
J. Act I-Scene I Production Notes and "Revision" Version 34 p.

VOLUME 33

GROUP XI 79 3L thru GROUP XI-79-3S

M. Act I-Scene III 4 p.
N. Act II Scene I 15 p.
O. Act II-Scene II 3 p.
P. Act II-Scene II-Revised 27 p.
Q. Act III-Scene I 6 p.
R. Act III Scene II 26 p.
S. Act III Scene III (Epilogue) 4 p.

VOLUME 34

GROUP XI 79-3T thru GROUP XI-79-4

T. 85 pages of another version of various segments of the play.

U. A letter to Miss Smedley from Yung Wung dated February 28, discusses choice of Chinese names for the play.

GROUP XI-79-4:

32 pages of unidentified manuscript.
GROUP XII-80

GROUP XIII-81

1. Leather satchel purse with shoulder strap.

1. Leather strap with four brass concho type decorations riveted at intervals.

1. Black notebook.

These items Miss Smedley carried with her during her travels throughout China.

GROUP XIII-81

1. Woodcut Scroll with reproduction of Lu Hsun by Liu Tien Hua.

1. Woodcut Scroll with reproduction of Lu Hsun by Li Hwa.

AGNES SMEDLEY
COLLECTION

PHOTOGRAPHS

The collection of photographs are listed in essentially the order in which Ms. Smedley had them in her collection. It is to be noted that in this preliminary inventory the duplicates have not been eliminated. It is to be noted also that in some instances photographs are in two or more locations and with different captions. The captions are those which Ms. Smedley had written or affixed to the reverse of the photographs.

It is unfortunate that Ms. Smedley did not date the photographs.
1. Major General Lai Kang -- Commander Peace Preservation Corps Lihewang, Anhwei
2. With the New 4th Storm Guerrilla Detachment in Central Hupeh
3. Fishing nets in the lake regions Northwest of Hankow
4. Dr. Li Ping Junan, Honan in charge of clinic of Junan Self Defense Corps
5. Communist youth doing "Sabbotnik" work for the peasants of North Shensi
6. Basketball in the Soviet Capitol - Yenan, North Shensi
7. Night welcome meeting. New 4th Storm Guerrilla Detachment in Central China, North of Hankow
8. Two members of the Hwang Hseueh Hwei (yellow learning society) a peasant self defense society in Central China which acted as guides and as auxiliaries to the national armies in Central China. In one battle 40 of their men were killed.

GROUP A -- Plate 2

1. Clinic and hospital of the Convent of Canossian Sisters (Halian-Catholic) at Nanyang, Honan - Care for air raid victims
2. Yincheng Self Defense Corps going through a snow storm to attack the Japanese which came along the Yincheng-Sunghoh highway in Central Hupeh against the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment headquarters.
3. Chinese war orphans adopted by the guerrillas in the enemy rear, were placed under a woman teacher, (Normal School Graduate). They studied half a day, then presented little plays and sang patriotic songs to the soldiers half a day.
4. American Lutheran Hospital - Kioshov after bombing
5. A group of war orphans of the Communist guerrillas who spent half of their time studying and half writing and presenting small plays and singing patriotic songs for civilians and the troops. The child in the foreground, his head down, is the boy I tried to adopt as my son
7. New 4th Army soldiers in class
8. War orphans adopted by the New 4th Army during the war, continued their education in that army. This is a class of children meeting at night in a club discussion of their daily lessons.
9. Conference of people's delegates in Communist regions for the first township elections in Central China. Voting was secret
10. Beggars in old tubs and row boats begging along the Yangtze
GROUP A - Plate 3

1. A street scene in Kin Kiang Kiangsi
2. Chin She Hsing - Law and Commerce College -- Peiping University
3. A worker's tea house
4. Provincial Hospital - Lihwang, Anhuei
5. Doctor and nurses at Chinese Front
6. Leader of the "Ten Man Group" an anti-Japanese Civilian organization in Central China - a Hankow Sailor
7. Kwangsi soldiers' machine gun unit North Hupeh front
8. A part of the parade of the funeral - girl students marching
9. Soldiers of Route Army

GROUP A -- Plate 4

1. At Chumatien, a destroyed town on the once Peking Hankow railway. A group of some 60 railway workers take rails and other metal and beat into swords
2. High school and college students in the Communist led New 4th Army listening to a medical lecture. They were under training as front line first aid medical workers in the companies
3. Convent of Canossian Sisters - Nanyang, Honan
4. One of the delousing stations and both houses put up by the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps and the "Friends of Wounded" in Ichang
5. A typical guerrilla commander of the New 4th Army along the Tientsin-Nanking railway
6. Former student of the Wuhan Art School, who commanded a guerrilla detachment with whom I travelled for a week in the enemy rear in Central Hupeh
7. From Shanghai thousands of educated youth have poured into the new 4th Army a guerrilla army along the lower Yangtze. This shows a group of them under training in four part singing - the first time four part singing has been introduced into any Chinese Army
8. Leaders of Womens' National Salvation Association in Central China in Guerrilla Territory

GROUP A -- Plate 5

1. Coolie laborers singing "Ye-ho, Ye-ho" with each step
2. The dramatic group of the Mass Mobilization Committee of Lihwang, Anhewei ?
3. The Yellow River at Tungkwan
4. After an air raid - dead child
5. Children's Dramatic Corp - a group doing folk dances at a mass meeting for the first peoples democratic elections in Central Hupeh - 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment
6. My escort - New 4th Army, Central Anhwei
7. One of the leaders of the Hwang Hsieh Hwei (A big sword society) in North Hupeh - a poor peasant organization of Feudal origin
8. A sentry and Hwe Shan
1. Bombed American church - Biyang

2. Poster of Chinese puppets of the Japanese in North China, calling for the overthrow of Chinese rulers and for a Japanese protected "autonomy". Wang Yi-Ting, who signs it, is a landlord, former police officer and member of the old Anfu Clique

3. Medical staff - New 4th Army in south Anhwei

4. Through the gates of Pieping

5. When I went to the guerrilla army the war orphans who had joined it and who grew to manhood in its ranks, gave me a night reception. They spend a number of hours each day in study, and doing light work the rest of the time.

6. Tan Shen

GROUP A -- Plate 7

1. Biyang Corps

2. First democratically elected town officials in Central Hupeh under the protection of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla detachment

3. 1st receiving station nearest the North Hupeh battlefield. In the foreground is the doctor - administrator in charge. The wounded are brought in by stretcher-bearers, given a change of dressings, simple food, and straw to sleep on. After a short rest they are sent on further by stretcher bearers.

4. The wounded lie on straw on the floor in the dressing stations, Receiving Stations and Field Hospitals in China

5. Korean Volunteers at the head of table and left - Japanese captives on right

6. In the streets of Nanking the streets are the restaurants of the poor

7. In Central Shensi Province is stationed the Second Front Red Army of which Ho Lung is Commander. Here are some of the men of this army, all of them poor peasants and workers from Hunan and Hupeh provinces in the South and Central part of China

8. Two Chinese speakers (right) of the 8th Route Army speaking at a welcome meeting to the first group of surgeons sent by the Indian National Congress. Left: Dr. Atal of the Indian National Congress speaking

9. In the streets of Hsiang Ho, a Chinese town now ruled by puppets

GROUP A -- Plate 8

1. In the Communist-protected areas of North and Northwest China, and in Central China, mass meetings of the civilian population were held where lectures informed them of the principles and methods of democracy. After weeks of such meetings, and conferences, suffrage rights were given to all men and women over 18 and elections held to elect people's officials. I spoke at this mass meeting and participated in the election campaigns in many regions as a speaker on democracy

2. From Shanghai thousands of educated youth have poured into the new 4th Army. This is a group of singers under training by a well-known Chinese musician from Shanghai. This musician introduced the first four part singing into a Chinese Army

3. Commanders of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla detachment - North of Hankow
4. Fishing near Hangchow

5. Young Chinese doctors, pioneers in medical science in China. Founders and directors of the new 4th Army Medical Service. All are graduates of qualified medical schools in China and abroad. They founded the first Medical Training School in the enemy rear and have turned out hundreds of sanitary workers for the fighting units.

6. A district Self-Defence Corps of civilians, some in uniform, some not, in Central China, ten miles from a Japanese garrisoned town.

7. A new 4th Army man in ambush waiting for the Japanese

8. A village conference of the Women's National Salvation Association - Ta Hung Shan, Central Hubei

GROUP A -- Plate 9

1. Leaders - Bureau of Finance -- Anhwei Province
2. Provincial Clinic at Lihwang - Anhwei
3. A crippled new 4th Army soldier Central Anhwei
4. Kwangsia machine-gun unit - North Hubei Front
5. Red cavalry-men at times dismount and take up positions waiting for the signal to go into action
6. A training camp of educated youth led by the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment
7. Emergency mustering of a guerrilla detachment in Central Hubei when news came of an attack by the Japanese. Bugle calls sounded and within five minutes we gathered, carrying everything we possessed and could carry.

GROUP A - Plate 10

1. The walking libraries
2. A peasant who brings charcoal to sell in the city
3. All that is left of a once large and prosperous household -- Chanying Shansi (China Int. Famine Relief Photo)
4. Street sign - Against the Yellow Labor Unions
5. New 4th Army dramatic group rehearsing for one of its plays
6. At the special school of the Chinese Communist Party - N.W. China
7. New 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment advancing to meet an attacking Japanese Column that drove against their headquarters
8. A Chinese play -- Author and Director Lin Pao-loh
9. A peasant speaks at a mass meeting of civilians and guerrillas in Central Hubei - "Cooperation Between Army and People."

GROUP A -- Plate 11

1. Commander of the Storm Guerrilla Detachment of the new 4th Army north of Hankow, with whom I lived in a no-man's land north of Hankow. 2nd from left is the commander (civilian) of a regiment of puppet troops who shot their Japanese "advisors" and deserted to the guerrillas with weapons and ammunition. Next: Tao Chu, brilliant 8th Route Army organizer; Li Hsiennien, a carpenter, commander of the Guerrilla Detachment of 6,000 men. Extreme right: a wealthy salt-mine owner who led the salt miners to join the detachment, commanded them, and used his wealth to finance the detachment. This man's Tsai, wears a captured Japanese overcoat.
2. Wherever the Japanese open drug shops, they hang out the Japanese flag. San Ho in North China. (Morphine, cocaine, heroin)

3. Outskirts of a mass meeting in Yenan, in support of the united front against Japanese imperialism

4. Women trained nurses, formerly of Central Hospital Nanking, examining troops North 4th in North Anhwei

5. Provincial Hospital Lihwang, Anhwei

6. Group of students of Peichuan, Sian, N

7. On the march - New 4th Army

8. Mai Ta-fu, E. Honan

9. Wall newspaper of New 4th Army

GROUP A -- Plate 12

1. Body guards at the Chinese Red Army headquarters, N. Shensi

2. Into the ranks of the CCP have come men and women of every race, including the most oppressed of the aboriginal tribes of western China, Tibet, and Central Asia. This is a picture of two Lolo tribesmen. They are students in the CP school at Yenan

3. Kwangsi troops N. Hupeh in the field

4. Dispensary of Province, at Lihwang, Anhwei

5. Pol. Dept. 5th War Zone

6. A Red Army regiment on the march

7. Col. Yang Chang-shih

8. Left to right 2nd Dr. Sheng; 3rd Yeh Ting; 4th Front Service Corps leader

9. Two captured Japanese women, one Japanese soldier; the others are Korean spies for the Japanese. 5th War Zone Headquarters

10. Street scene, Kinkiang, Kiangsi, along the Yangtze

11. Major General Li Wen-tien Chunchang

GROUP A -- Plate 13

1. A wounded Chinese soldier in an Army hospital. The hospital equipment is the most primitive

2. The 'Wang Ching-wei-Hiranuma Pact", an anti-traitor drama produced by the Dramatic society of the Mass Mobilization Committee of Lihwang, Anhwei. The modern Drama was used during the war as the most powerful means of propagating new ideas about China, the world and about the war

3. A tall figure with a round cap is a captured commander of a Japanese puppet army in Central Hupeh. Court martialed and shot by the new 4th. This puppet commander was formerly a commander in a national army and was a Whampoo military cadet

4. The new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment in Central Hupeh captures cigarettes, brown and white sugar, kerosene and other supplies from Japanese boat on the Han River

5. The Red cavalry practices manoeuvres against air attacks. With the sound of an airplane, they drop to the earth and lie motionless, from the air appearing like piled up stones

6. A valley, Machiachung, in the Ta Hung range in Central Hupeh. Scene of a 22-hour battle between Japanese column and the New 4th Army
Storm Guerrillas

7. These supplies are all the medical supplies in an Army receiving station in Hankow where there are temporary beds for 500 wounded

8. Clinic of the Convent of Canossian Sisters at Nanyang, Honan

GROUP A -- Plate 14

1. A potter makes wine jars for sale
2. Chinese soldiers who today police Hopei soldiers of General Sun Cheh-yuan
3. Kwangsi troops in barracks roll call, singing (N. Hupeh front)
4. G. A. Escort -- Ta Hung Shan
5. It was a bloody era in which Chinese workers, peasants and communists were openly beheaded on the public streets
6. Left to right: Political Director of New Fourth Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment: Chen Tai-ji, A woman Commander; Li Hsien-nien, Commander of the Guerrilla Detachment
7. Sign -- "In memory of April 12 support the Red Army of workers and peasants

GROUP A -- Plate 15

1. Kuominchun troops in Honan
2. War on the plains of Honan -- the fields of the peasants are dug up and made into trenches
3. The communist guerrillas organized villages in the rear of the Japanese during the war, held lectures for weeks on methods of democracy, then the people held their first democratic elections for village and town administrators
4. First Democratic elections in guerrilla territory recovered from the Japanese in Central China. People were given "ballot papers" - red pieces of paper meaning yes, green meaning no. The names of the candidates were then read out and the "ballot box" - a basket - held up to receive the votes
5. Pinghan Railway workers who use rails of destroyed Pinghan line to make swords
6. A unit of the new 4th Army came to a mass meeting to welcome us near Nanking
7. Some of the delegates at the first conference of women of Hsien in Central Hupeh. Women's National Salvation Association
8. Four commanders of the Ying-chen Hsien self-defence corps that fought in cooperation with the new 4th's Storm Guerrilla detachment. 2nd from the left is the commander, formerly a student in the agrarian department of Nanking University. I spent a week with this detachment
9. A regiment of the new 4th Army guerrillas fought the Japanese over the foothills of the Da Hung mountains while I waited with others on a hilltop from afar and tried to photograph some of them

GROUP A -- Plate 16

1. A school boy in Tangho, Honan knits his own sweater
2. A Red Army Regiment
3. Dr. Nelson Fu is one of the most able physicians. In 1930 he joined the Red Army Medical Corps; was director of the Soviet Government Hospital in Shuikin, the Soviet capitol in Kiangsi, went on the long march, and is today director of the Government clinic in the Soviet capitol, Yenan
4. Carpet weavers at work in a Peiping factory
5. Wall newspaper - Tangho, Honan
6. Self-Defence Corps of Junan, Honan, clinic. Dr. Li Ping in center. His total dispensary in back
7. New 4th Storm Guerrilla Detachment men pay boatmen in the lake region north of Hankow for transport of troops

GROUP A -- Plate 17
1. A Kwangsi machine gun unit North Hupeh front
2. New 4th Army sick and wounded, Central Anhwei, welcome
3. Malaria case, clinic of hospital in Lihwang, Anhwei
4. A unit of the new 4th Army ready for the front
5. An Army hospital in Changsha
7. Captured Japanese war trophies in headquarters of the new 4th. Includes a trooper with a sword
8. Clinic-dispensary, Convent of Canossiau Sisters, Nanyang, Honan
9. Sign "Workers Unite"

GROUP A -- Plate 18
1. Children rescued from the famine territory, spinning in a mission compound earning their food
2. A Red cavalryman throwing his horse to the earth when a signal of an approaching airplane is given
3. Kwangsi Army soldiers sports - N. Hupeh
4. Nanking Government troops marching through the streets of Kinkiang, Kiangsi, being sent against the Red Army
5. Stevedores loading Yangtze steamers
6. Stretcher bearer soldiers in Kwangsi Army in the field - N. Hupeh
7. Fang Chih, Commissioner of Education of Anhwei Province
8. Kwangsi soldier sentry N. Hupeh front
9. Sign - "Smash the Anti-Red Campaign"

VOLUME 39

GROUP B PLATE #1-1 thru GROUP C PLATE #31-4

GROUP B -- Plate 1
1. A training camp of the New 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment in Central Hupeh where lower officers are trained. Gathered to hear me speak
2. Kwangsi - A training camp for corporals - Fancheng
3. Opium-smoking villages near Harbin, Manchuria
4. A civilian training class taught by the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment North of Hankow - Methods of Organization
GROUP B - Plate 2

1. Honan province

2. Kwangsi troops (173 Division) on North Hupeh front

3. Wall painting, covering the high wall of an entire building in the city of Tsao-yang, North Hupeh Province, Central China. "Japanese bandits rob, kill, rape! Arise, arise, struggle against the bandits." By the political department of the 22nd Group Army

4. Southern Honan village cotton market

5. Men of the stretcher bearer battalions of the Army Medical Administration of the Ministry of War, transporting the wounded from the Central China front

6. Mass Education Institute of Tangho, Honan. This Institute conducted night classes in literacy for adults. Over 300 of the common people, men and women, studied in it each night

GROUP B - Plate 3

1. Editor, Ta Pieh Shan Er Pao, Lihwang, Anhwei. This editor, now in the enemy rear, was once a young lecturer in a Peking University

2. Soldiers of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment learn reading and writing

3. In a new 4th Army Station in Central Anhwei

4. Captured Japanese trophies in the new 4th Army Headquarters

5. Chinese guerrillas dressed in captured Japanese overcoats

GROUP B -- Plate 4

1. Five commanders of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment in Central Hupeh. Left: the woman commander "Ch'en Ta ja"; 4th from left, the chief commander, Li Hsien-nien

2. Lt. Gen. Wang Chih-yuan (nearest) and his vice-commander who directed the fighting on the N. Hupeh front

3. A slogan leader at a mass meeting in Yenan, Soviet China

4. In the Loess Country of Northwest China - villages dug in the hills and mountains

5. Instructors in the training camp of the new 4th Army in Central-Eastern Hupeh along Tientsin-Nanking Railway

6. Red Army soldiers - N W Shensi, Province - China

7. An election meeting preceding elections for village leaders, Central Hupeh. In this "living education" system, villagers were taught methods of democratic elections, village and town administration

GROUP C -- Plate 1

1. Throughout Central China I found peasants with guns under military training

2. Twice a year, high school graduates and younger local officials took competitive examinations to enter government officers training schools

3. I lectured across the length of Honan to civilians, students, soldiers (military group)

4. Same (civilian group)

GROUP C -- Plate 2

1. The Army soldier - dressers on the North Hupeh battlefront did the best they could for wounded - the wounded were grateful
2. Unidentified Chinese Officers (6)
3. Unidentified Chinese Officers (2)

GROUP C -- Plate 3
1. The Japanese bombed Changsha and Hankow daily
2. The Red Cross Medical Corps did its duty
3. All the Japanese left of Chumatien, on the Peking-Hankow railway was rubble
4. A tunnel is now used as an air-raid dugout

GROUP C -- Plate 4
1. The bombing of Chungking as seen from the American gunboat Tutuila, in the Yangtze River. The columns of smoke are bombs. (Photo taken by gunboat officers)
2. Unidentified photo of first aid station
3. Chinese soldier with one leg
4. In the street of the cloth dyers near Sian. Note the coffin on a cart to the left. A coolie had tethered his supper on top of it.

GROUP C -- Plate 5
1. The Orthopaedic Center of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Unit at Kweiyang, Kweichow Province - making automobile spare parts that last for sometime but not good enough
2. Two mechanics - one woman in the Red Cross Medical Corps shops - a demonstration truck to teach drivers
3. Unidentified army group with banners
4. Same different view

GROUP C -- Plate 6
1. When we took the dressing off this wounded man's hand, we found the hand almost severed. The Superintendent performed an operation under the most primitive conditions
2. "How did you get that head wound?" I asked the machine gunner. Falteringly he answered, "It is such a little thing -- it is for my country." His head sank onto his breast and he died before our eyes
3. Unidentified group civilians
4. Same group -- different view

GROUP C -- Plate 7
1. The Chinese troops in Ichang were well clad, handsome young men, who marched with military precision
2. Everywhere the peasants were pouring into the armies to fight the Japanese
3. Officers of the 189th Division (Kwangsi) of the 84th Army of the 11th Army Group - Tsaoyang, North Hupeh Province -- Inside Officers Club where we had tea

GROUP C -- Plate 8
1. Provincial Hospital for soldiers and civilians - Lihwang, Anhwei
2. The stubs of wheat are rooted and washed in bags
3. The North Hupeh battlefield is advantageous to the Japanese. This is the City of Tsaoyang. For dozens of miles to the south, the terrain was like this -- the enemy, with mechanized equipment, found it advantageous; the Chinese were at a fearful disadvantage.

4. Two Korean Volunteers in Kweilin, Kwangsi, province

GROUP C -- Plate 9

1. We went up into the hills for winter manoeuvres

2. Same group different view

3. With a "big sword" Society, the Hwang Shih Hwei, in North Hupeh. It's men work with the Chinese armies to fight the enemy. The two overcoats in front are Japanese

4. Same organization - different view

GROUP C -- Plate 10

1. Two American doctors in charge of the Swedish-American Bethesda Hospital at Siyang, Hupeh Province

2. Doctors and nurses in air-raid dugouts

3. This is what the Japanese did to the Swedish-American Bethesda Hospital at Siyang, Hupeh Province

4. Same hospital -- different view of demolition

5. General Hwang Chi-hsiang, Commander-in-Chief of the 11th Group (Kwangsi) Army in Central Hupeh Province Fifth War Zone

GROUP C -- Plate 11

1. The Mayor of Hwangchuan, Honan; Major-Gen. Wang Chan-ping, of the 7th Army; and Special Commissioners Mai Ta-fu of Hwangchuan

2. Members of the Ancient Peasant secret society, the Hwang Shih Hwei, in North Hupeh, a big sword society that practices mystic rites but fight the Japanese. They wear yellow insignia

3. Boy sentries of the Hwang Shih Hwei watch the path near the Central China front

GROUP C -- Plate 12

1. What the Japanese left of the railway town of Chumatien on the Peking-Hankow Railway line in Honan Province

2. "Political Soldiers" of the 519th Reg. of the 175rd Division, during a recess between my lectures. Hupeh front 5th War Zone

3. A group of "Political Soldiers" learning singing at night

GROUP C -- Plate 13

1. Members of an industrial cooperative in Laohokuo Hupeh Province, Central China

2. Dr. Skinsness of Kioshan, Honan, and his bombed hospital - 3 views

GROUP C -- Plate 14

1. Chinese Red Army cavalrymen in Yenan, Shensi

2. Three scenes along the motor road, the "life line" of China which runs north-south through Hupeh Province. The battlefield was to the east far across the Han River where the Chinese confined the Japanese in the Ta Hung Mountain Range. In May, 1940, the Japanese broke through to this highway - which is perfect for a mechanized army like the Japanese and disastrous for the Chinese.
1. Lt. General Wang Chih-yuan, Christian Commander on the N. Hupeh front. Vice-Commander and Chief of Staff
2. Gen. Wang with an enemy field gun captured by his troops
3. Stretcher-bearer units of the 173rd Division of the Kwangsi Army
4. Kwangsi Army Sentry. Note the pronounced Annimite racial mixture
5. Unidentified group eating from bowls

1. Dr. Robert K.S. Lim (Photo by American Bureau for Medical Aid to China)
2. General Li Chung-jen, Commander-in-Chief of the Fifth War Zone, sent me to the front in his private car. My bedding, clothing roll was strapped on the car
3. Political Department of the Fifth War Zone Headquarters, Laohokuo, Hupeh Province

1. A "Walking-Wounded" evacuating himself from the front to a hospital in the rear
2. Fang Chih-ming (center) and two of his officers, captured and beheaded in Nanchang, Kiangsi, during the Communist-Kuomintang civil wars. Fang Chih-ming was an engineer and a great organizer, founder of the 10th Red Army Corps in Northeastern Kiangsi
3. My host is Hankow, the Rt. Rev. Logan H. Roots, Episcopal Bishop of Hankow who signed this photograph "from your comrade and friend."

1. In the repair shops of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps, Kweiyang, China
2. Peasant mass meeting at Lantien, near Sian, where I spoke. Three views of tremendous gatherings of military and civilians
3. The girl nurses in the 124th Division at the front spent their leisure moments in battle drills and manoeuvres
4. Walking wounded leaving the front

1. Two Korean leaders of the Korean Volunteer Army of China. On the right, nearest the camera is Captain Li, Commander of the Korean Unit in the Fifth War Zone, Central China. These men are in charge of all Japanese prisoners of war and of all captured enemy documents which they translate into Chinese for the use of the Chinese Army, speaking the Japanese language, they are also in charge of all radio broadcasts
2. Civilian stretcher-bearers carrying wounded from the front to field hospitals three weeks to the rear
3. Civilians aiding in transporting the wounded from the front
4. Chinese soldiers learning to read and write in their barracks at the front

1. Left: Field commander of the 22nd Group Army on the north Hupeh front, with his Chief-of-Staff
2. While the artillery roared, we stood on plateau and Lt. General
Wang Chih-yuan watched the shells burst in a Japanese position seven miles to the east.

3. The 9.3 cm. field gun captured by the 122 Division in battle

4. The Japanese bombed the orthopaedic hospital of the Chinese Red Cross though the Red Cross flag was flying

5. The headquarters of the Chinese Red Cross had four operating tables going at one time

GROUP C -- Plate 21

1. On July 7th anniversary of the Sino Japanese war, the wounded soldiers in the Chinese Red Cross Training Hospital gathered in the cemetery to honor their comrade dead (2 views)

2. We trained hundreds of educated youth as ambulance units of the Red Cross Medical Corps

3. Chinese Red Cross doctors at work over wounded men

GROUP C -- Plate 22

1. The soldiers of the 173rd Division sang The Marsellaise as they marched, the words are Chinese

2. Soldiers of the 35th Group Army, a northern army, on the Central China front

3. The Kwangsi Army soldiers sang songs of patriotism

4. In Manchuria, I stepped back into the Middle Ages. Yet industrialism was entering (3 views)

GROUP C -- Plate 23

1. Regimental officers of the 519th Regiment of the 173rd Division. Second from left: Col. Yang; Guo Ping, Vice-Commander; Political Director; second Vice-Commander Liu (2 views)

2. Sometimes it means danger to life to bring the wounded from the battlefield. Men crouch and run with the stretchers (2 views)

GROUP C -- Plate 24

1. In Hong Kong: left to right: myself (Agnes Smedley); Emily Hahn; Mrs. Hilda Selwyn-Clarke and her daughter, Mary; Miss Margaret Watson, head social worker of Queen Mary Hospital

2. Wounded civilians of the ancient "big sword" society, the Hwang Shih Hwei, who fought side by side with the 22nd Group Army on the North Hupeh battlefield. The yellow belt tied about the middle is a symbol of this ancient feudal society (2 views)

3. Red Army soldiers - Veterans from Kiang Si

GROUP C -- Plate 25

1. Soldiers of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment

2. I passed through Japanese lines with these men. To the extreme left is their commander - former art student in Hankow

3. Before crossing a Japanese patrolled highway the commander gave orders to the troops

4. Ronald O. Hall, Bishop of Hong Kong, one of the most determined British friends of China in whose home I lived in Hong Kong. His chief work was the development of Chinese Industrial Cooperatives and the care of wounded soldiers and refugees

GROUP C -- Plate 26

1. Student demonstrations against the Japanese in the streets of Shanghai. Leaflets covered the streets like snow (2 views)
2. Chinese factory workers have spiritual faces - faces filled with suffering (2 views)

GROUP C - Plate 27
1. Every 10 miles on the north and Central Hupeh fronts were primitive dressing stations to care for the wounded (2 views)
2. A civilian woman feeds the wounded
3. Women's Committee of the Fifth War Zone, Laohokuo, Hupeh Province
4. Talking with the Women's Committee of the Fifth War Zone, Laohokuo

GROUP C -- Plate 28
1. The General Review of the Kwangsi Army on the Hupeh front began (2 views)
2. General Mai, Commander in Chief of the 84th Army of the 11th Group Army
3. "Political Soldiers" of the Kwangsi Army to whom I lectured

GROUP C -- Plate 29
1. The Kwangsi soldiers (173rd Div.) squat about tins of vegetables while eating. Rice is brought in baskets
2. I found the soldiers sitting in the barracks, studying. 173rd Division of the 11th Group Army
3. The 173rd Division maneuvering in the hills and over the wheat fields
4. We stood behind the machine gunners

GROUP C -- Plate 30
1. On July 7th anniversary of the Sino-Japanese War, the wounded in the Training Hospital of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps at Kweiyang, Kwangsi, held ceremonies in the cemetery where their comrades lay (2 views)
2. Kwangsi soldiers of the 84th Army at Tsaoyang, N. Hupeh province on the Central China front, learning everything about their machine guns (2 views)

GROUP C -- Plate 31
1. The stretcher-bearers halted at villages to give the wounded water
2. Civilian stretcher bearers on the Central China front
3. The wounded are brought into a dressing station just three miles from the North Hupeh battlefield
4. A Divisional Hospital at the front

VOLUME 40

GROUP C PLATE #32-1 thru GROUP D PLATE #26 4

GROUP C -- Plate 32
1. The wounded were brought into dressing stations a short distance off the battlefield (2 views)
2. General Tang En-po's Army moved up to the front (2 views)

GROUP C -- Plate 33
1. Air raid victims were brought into Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps Headquarters in Changsha (2 views)
2. Soldiers of the 173rd Division drawn up for the high military inspectors from Central Military Council in preparation for the Winter Chinese Offensive, 1939-40

3. We went into the hills for manoeuvres

GROUP C -- Plate 34

1. In the wards of the Training Hospital of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps at Kweiyang, Kwangsi (4 views)

GROUP C -- Plate 35

1. Chinese Red Cross doctors worked in hospital trains - Hsuchow Front
2. Field dressing stations of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps
3. An officer of the new 4th Army in South Anhwei who deserted, was captured and shot
4. A commander of the new 4th Army explains to the troops the reason it was necessary to shoot a deserter

GROUP C -- Plate 36

1. Military Hospital in Hankow (4 views)

GROUP C -- Plate 37

1. Educated youth were trained as Red Cross ambulance workers. General Joseph Stilwell and Col. Evans F. Carlson secured the first American Red Cross appropriation to help in their training (2 views)
2. The 124th Division of the 22nd Group Army captured a Japanese field gun and brought it down from the mountains by hitching oxen to it. They camouflaged it with the branches of trees and soldiers took turns riding it (2 views)

GROUP C -- Plate 38

1. The Japanese bombed the Red Cross Medical Corps Training Hospital at Kweiyang. The wounded who could walk had gone into the hills as the planes approached
2. After the raid men formerly wounded at the front, were brought in again on stretchers to be operated on
4. Soldiers and civilians came to a Field Hospital at Lihwang, Anhwei, bearing gifts from civilians for the Army sick and wounded

GROUP C -- Plate 39

1. Dr. Yeh in charge of the Anhwei Provincial Hospital, receives the sick and wounded, all of whom were treated without charge
2. The ancient "big sword" society Hwang Shih Hwei, North Hupeh with women members of the society
3. Men members who guide the Chinese armies against the enemy

GROUP C -- Plate 40

1. In the laboratory of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps, Kweiyang, Kwangsi Province
2. In the supply department of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps, Kweiyang Kwangsi Province
3. The way the students in Lihwang, Anhwei Province live
4. Wall newspaper in the Administrative Training School, Lihwang, Anhwei in the enemy rear

GROUP C Plate 41

1. The Japanese planes left the Red Cross Training Hospital in this condition (2 views)

2. Repair shop of the Red Cross Medical Corps

3. Ambulance of Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps, Dr. Eva Ho Tung in the foreground

GROUP C -- Plate 42

1. Sometimes my armed escorts were tough warriors of the regular armies

2. We often halted before villages to talk with the people

3. On the way to the Field Headquarters of General Chang Tze-chung, we talk with young Army men for hours (2 views)

GROUP C -- Plate 43

1. The Canossian Nuns of Nanyang, Honan, caring for the wounded. I was cold and they sheltered me; I was hungry and they gave me food (2 views)

2. The village headquarters of the ancient "big sword" society, the Hwang Shih Hwei, in North Hupeh, where I spent a day and a night (2 views)

GROUP C -- Plate 44

1. The paths of Central China are filled with men and animals carrying ammunition up to the front (2 views)

2. General Lai Kang, garrison commander of Lihwang, Anhwei

3. Lt. Gen. Ma Chi-ying, West Point graduate, 1924

GROUP D -- Plate 1

1. Red Army soldiers

2. Little Devil Buglers

3. A column of men of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla cross streams on boats

4. Unidentified group of civilians with army officers in foreground

GROUP D -- Plate 2

1. Mr. Shong Yi (former General of the Army) 70 year old Magistrate of Hanchuran district, Central Hupeh; removed from office because he was too progressive and refused to conduct an anti-communist campaign

2. A guerrilla dramatic theatre giving a play to soldiers about Japanese and puppets against whom the Communist guerrillas fought

3. Commanders of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment - A Communist Army in the enemy rear North of Hankow

4. Tao Chu, veteran Communist political leader and educator

GROUP D -- Plate 3

1. Men under training as administrators of Anhwei Province, in the Administrative Training School - Lihwang, Anhwei

2. A Training Camp in Lihwang, Anhwei - taken just before my lecture
3. Shoe manufacturing shop (2 views)

GROUP D -- Plate 4

1. General Li Chung-jen, Commander-in-Chief of the Fifth War Zone, told me his opinion of the Japanese -- and of the Americans who gave China's enemy a sword (2 views)

2. The guerrillas and the wounded stood in long lines along the paths to welcome me (2 views)

GROUP D -- Plate 5

1. To extreme right is Miss Li, a qualified woman nurse trained by American missionaries, who acts as physician, surgeon, Army Medical Director, of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment north of Hankow

2. In the hospital of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment north of Hankow

3. The railway workers of the destroyed town of Chumatien in Honan took the steel rails and spans and beat them into big swords for the armies of liberation

GROUP D -- Plate 6

1. General Chang Tze-chung, Commander of the 33rd Group Army and Commander-in-chief of the Chinese Right Wing during the offensive of 1939-40. He fell in action at the front in May, 1940. He is seen thanking a "consolation group" of civilians from Kwangsi Province who toured the front to bring greetings to the soldiers

2. A part of Chang Tze-chung's Army

3. General Chang Tze-chung, Commander of the 33rd Group Army. Caught as he made a speech of thanks to a civilian delegation

GROUP D -- Plate 7

1. The wounded were often transported on lumbering, jolting ox carts from the Central and North China fronts, to the Han River in the rear

2. The last carts were filled with the wounded who died on the way

3. Images - A conference of the gods (of the Shiu Hu Chuan) in an open field near the Tsaoyang-Lishan highway in north Hupeh

GROUP D -- Plate 8

1. The Children's Army of war-orphans sent a message to American children

2. Disabled, crippled Chinese soldiers form cooperatives of various kinds. These are trained as tailors, and have their own cooperative tailoring establishment. They earn their living and make uniforms for the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps and the Army. These men own and manage their Cooperative

GROUP D -- Plate 9

1. A column of Chinese puppet soldiers who fought for the Japanese. Captured by the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment in battle. These men were either conscripted or captured and put in the Japanese puppet forces

2. The secret anti-Japanese "Ten Man Group" captured the head of a Japanese controlled puppet government who tried to bribe his captors and the martial court that tried him. He was a greasy old degenerate

3. Proclamation of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment north of Hankow, announcing the arrest of Chinese traitors. Names given to the list. Those crossed through were tried to court martial and shot

4. Men arrested as spies or agents of the Japanese in the region north of Hankow; arrested by new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment

GROUP D -- Plate 10

1. Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps ambulance units at work after a Japanese air-raid. These ambulance workers wear steel helmets, and about their waists dressing belts presented from the American Red Cross

2. Women leaders in a guerrilla detachment in Central China, north of Hankow. All are educated women. Woman in center was formerly a teacher in North China

3. In Central Anhwei the maimed soldiers of the new 4th Army welcomed me and told me their stories

4. Unidentified hospital operating room

5. Unidentified group in auditorium

GROUP D -- Plate 11

1. Typical group of Chinese students singing patriotic songs. These boys and girls were formerly cultural workers in the 21st Group Army in Anhwei, but deserted and joined the Communist guerrillas in Anhwei and north Kiangsu Province because they refused to obey orders of growing Fascist reaction in the army

2. A hospital of the new 4th Army in an ancestral temple in north Kiangsu Province, north of Shanghai. I spent 8 months with this Army in the field and helped care for their wounded

3. Guerrillas of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment in Central Hupeh

4. Five unidentified photographs of various scenes of civilian and military personnel

GROUP D -- Plate 12

1. I was dreadfully worried about these two little Chinese boys whom I found sliding down the balustrade of the old Confucian Temple in Sian. The balustrade is of stone and the pants of China's children are made open at the back, for use at a moments notice; and that is why I worried

2. They grind corn on such mills in China's northwest

3. Chinese guerrillas (farmers) who have arisen in the tracks of the Japanese, along the lower Yangtze River Valley, to fight the invader. They were on their way to join the communist guerrillas

4. Delegates of first Women's National Salvation Association (11 districts represented) in the enemy rear in Central China. All are simple village women who have learned to speak and think independently since the war began

5. "Chu Teh's Death Fully Confirmed" - "Chu Teh's Death Confirmed Again" "Reds lose one of 'Big Three' Chu Teh Killed!" These headlines screamed across the press of China and the world a dozen times in the past ten years during the wars of Nanhung against the Chinese Workers and Peasants Red Army. Chu Teh, on the right (Lin Pao on the left), the much-killed Red Commander-in-chief, laughs in amusement when he hears of his repeated death

6. Unidentified meeting of Chinese officers around a night light

GROUP D -- Plate 13

1. For sale: the child of famine victims. Price two sacks of flour; or maybe one; or even a half of one

2. Chinese Red Cross mechanics at work repairing an ambulance Kweiyang, Kwangsi
3. Commander and vice-commander of the 4th Regiment of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment North of Hankow. This Regiment was made up of local peasants, fishermen and artisans. Both commanders were sent by the 8th Route Army from the far northwest. I was in the field with this regiment for one month.

4. New 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment north of Hankow, in the enemy rear - held a night meeting to welcome me.

5. Guerrilla soldiers of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment.

GROUP D - Plate 14

1. Qualified women nurses conducting a physical examination of guerrilla troops along the Tientsin-Nanking railway in Anhwei Province. These young women were formerly nurses in Nanking. I crossed the Yangtze River with these women and 100 men.

2. It was a bloody era in which workers, peasants and communists were beheaded on the streets.

3. Soldiers of the 84th (Kwangsi) Army at Tsaoyang, Hupeh Province, Central China front, carve Chinese characters (words) out of bamboo unpainted save for the top edge or a corner here and there, which they touched with a bright red, giving it a beautiful effect.

4. Railway workers on the Peking-Hankow railway tore up steel railways and girders and made big swords for the guerrillas and army from them.

GROUP D - Plate 15

1. A former Korean soldier in the Japanese Army of China, captured by the Chinese new 4th Army, he immediately joined the Chinese as a political worker to win over other Korean and Japanese soldiers.

2. Lt. Gen Cheng Su yuan, commander of the 124th Div. of the 22nd Group Army on the North Hupeh front.

3. Chinese artists, members of the Political Departments of the Armies, painted wall murals across the walls of buildings to inspire the people to resistance to the enemy. This is a Chinese peasant, pictured in peasant hat and clothing armed with gun, standing as protector of the peasant cultivators tilling the soil.

GROUP D - Plate 16

2. Local Guerrillas under new 4th Army - near Hankow.

3. The first democratic elections of lower officials in the territory of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment.

4. An election wall newspaper in the enemy rear.

5. The election of officials of the lien pao second high organ after the village or town followed conference of town and village delegates to discuss problems before voting by secret ballot.

GROUP D - Plate 17

1. This is a photograph taken by the official photographer with the Communist-led new 4th Army after a raid made by this detachment on a Japanese air-drome. Note the trophies of guns, bicycles, flags and coats. The Chinese wrote the brief history of this raid in Chinese characters on the film, giving the trophies captured. This photograph was given to me by the new 4th Army.

3. In the words of the Training Hospital of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps at Kweiyang, Kwangsi (2 views).
4. Guerrillas of the Hanchuan District Self Defence Corps in the enemy rear northwest of Hankow

5. Where the guerrillas fought in the Ta Hung Mountain Range (2 views)

GROUP D -- Plate 18

1. Our beloved "Vinegar Joe" Lieutenant General Joseph F. Stilwell of the American Army

2. Lieutenant Colonel Evans F. Carlson, "Battle Hymn of the Republic"

3. My friends of Hankow Days: Major Frank Dorn; General Chou En-lai, representing the Chinese Communists in the Chinese Government; Lieutenant Evans F. Carlson; Mr. Robert Jarvis, American Counsular official. Agnes Smedley is in the center

GROUP D -- Plate 19

1. The first hill in the background with a long path leading up the ridge is the tomb of Ch'in Shih Huang Ti (255 B.C.) whom the Chinese call "the great tyrant." He began the building of the Great Wall, also great irrigation canals, cities, bridges

2. Ancient bas reliefs on the old Confucian Temple in Sian (4 views)

GROUP D -- Plate 20

1. Hung Shan, Buddhist monk in charge of government refugee work in Anhwei Province

2. With armed escorts I marched and marched for months (2 views)

GROUP D -- Plate 21

1. The official figures of the Shanghai Municipal Council revealed that from 32,000 to 35,000 dead bodies were picked up in the street of the city each year and buried in paupers' graves

2. Four thousand workers, peasants, soldiers and students were mowed down in the counter-revolution which followed the Canton Commune, Dec. 11, 1927

3. Two unidentified photographs of mass meetings of troops and civilians

GROUP D -- Plate 22

1. Under-nourished war orphans in the Government orphanage at Kioshan, Honan Province (2 views)

2. In the center is a doctor of the new 4th Army, wounded, where dressing is being changed

3. Dr. Eric Landauer, member of the League of Nations Anti-epidemic Commission, lectures on public health in the Medical Training School of the new 4th Army - Dr. Gung translated

GROUP D -- Plate 23

1. New 4th Army Guerrillas marched against the Japanese during a snowstorm

2. New 4th Army in the Ta Hung mountain range

3. A group of guerrillas along the Yangtze Valley

5. A peasant mass meeting in the enemy rear where I spoke

6. The peasants came out to welcome me
1. I caught a Red Army truck and disappeared from what is known as civilization
2. Mao Tun, one of the most noted novelists of modern China
3. Where child slaves in a Peking match factory slept
4. At the front I travelled like this

1. Demonstrations of soldiers, civilians, and officials in the streets of Sian, demanding the end of civil war, and a united front against Japan
2. After the war orphans had been dressed in clean new uniforms and had been bathed and their heads shaved, they began to get their first regular meals
3. Chinese soldiers, taught reading and writing in the Army, carving Chinese words from bamboo and arranging them into anti Japanese slogans across the walls of buildings and towns. Sometimes they colored the words

1. Political Director, and his assistant of the Yin Cheng Self-Defence Corps, in the enemy rear north of Hankow. The political director (left) in the captured Japanese overcoat is a graduate of the American maintained Tsinghwa College, Peiping
2. Leaders of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment in the enemy rear, talk with some of my party. To the extreme left is commander Chen Ta-ji, a woman
3. Chow Sho (or Chow Ming-Ching) - Fascist-Blue Shirt-guerrilla commander in Central China whose business it was to fight the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment instead of the Japanese
4. Headquarters guards of the Blue Shirt Military Chieftain

1. Japanese propaganda leaflets dropped by airplane over the new 4th Army along the lower Yangtze
2. For years I was on the highways and by ways of China's battlefields (I am the figure just behind the foremost figure)
3. Wounded of the new 4th Army hospital - Central Anhwei

1. New 4th Army - girls trained as nurses
2. Left to right: General Mei, Commander of the 84th Army; one of the high military inspectors who reviewed the front; Lt. Gen. Chung Yi, Commander of the 173rd Division
3. New 4th Army sick and wounded - Central Anhwei
4. A dead child - the result of an air raid
GROUP D -- Plate 29

1. A group of students leading a campaign for the daily newspaper of the People's Mobilization Committee, the Ta Pieh Shan Er Pao

2. A group of doctors of the new 4th Army second from the left is Dr. Tzwei who was captured and tortured into insanity in Manchuria, but later recovered. Third from the left is Dr. Chang, only woman doctor at the front, who was always looking for "cadavers." Fifth from left is Dr. Shen, Medical Director of the Army. Last in line is Dr. N. C. Gung who led the first medical unit into the enemy rear - north of the Yangtze.

3. Chang Pei-Chuan, editor of the largest and most important anti-Fascist democratic daily in the enemy rear; one of the most important leaders in the People's Mobilization Committee of Anhwei Province in 1938-39.

GROUP D -- Plate 30

1. Wounded men of a guerrilla army along the Tientsin-Nanking railway. All are local farmers who were wounded fighting the Japanese.

3. A guerrilla unit of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment in the enemy rear along the Peking-Hankow Railway north of Hankow.

4. The whole population of towns and villages gathered in groves to avoid air-raids, and there I told them of the millions of foreign friends who hoped for their victory.

GROUP D -- Plate 31

1. I spent five weeks lecturing in the educational institutions of Lihwang, capital of Anhwei Province.

2. The Tangho Pao was a small newspaper published by hand by one editor and these two printers.

3. Children's Dramatic Corps of the new 4th Army Storm Guerrilla Detachment. To the extreme right, front row, is a girl school teacher who was in charge of them.

4. In the Women's Conference north of Hankow.

GROUP D -- Plate 32

1. On the plains of Honan Province we hailed a regiment of Kwangsi soldiers moving to the enemy rear in Anhwei Province. We stopped and exchanged news (2 views).

2. We watched the trench mortars in action (3 views).

GROUP D -- Plate 33

1. The Industrial Cooperative connected with the Orthopedic Hospital of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps in Kweiyang teach trades to the maimed (2 views).

2. Returning to the Red Cross Medical Corps after 18 months at the front, I found a group of 16 European Anti-Fascist doctors who had served with the Spanish Republican Armies and had been sent to China by the Norwegian Red Cross.

3. I urge Chinese girl nurses of Hong Kong to leave Hong Kong and go to the front to serve their wounded countrymen.

GROUP D -- Plate 34

1. Officers Club Room of a regiment of the 73rd Division.
2. Three young regimental commanders welcomed me to their regiment. In the center was the regimental commander who had never made a speech to a foreigner before.

3. The General Review of the 173rd Division on the Hupeh front in preparation for the Winter Chinese Offensive (2 views)

GROUP D - Plate 35

1. Lieutenant General Chung Yi (in front of the banner); the older man to his right was the Vice-Commander; nearest the camera was the young intellectual invited by General Chung to help him study. This was the breakfast of welcome to me. All of these men were killed in action.

2. General Cheng Su-Yuan, Commander of the 124th Division of the 22nd Group Army and his Chief of Staff. For hours we talked across the candlelight. It was Christmas Eve, 1939.

3. Chinese armies and railway men tore up their railways to prevent the Japanese from using them. Then the railway men carried away the steel rails and girders and forged them into big swords for the railway worker, member of a group of 60 railway workers who banded together to form a cooperative. They use blacksmith forges and bellows to melt and weld steel rails - then hammer them into swords for use against the enemy.

GROUP D - Plate 36

1. Railway workers on the old Peking Hankow Railway tore up the rails and founded a small foundry in Chumatien, Honan, where they turned rails into big swords for the armed forces (2 views).

2. The peasants of Central China gathered in mass meetings where I spoke.

3. Civilians studying in short-term courses on methods of mass organization against the Japanese.

GROUP D - Plate 37

1. Mr. Chang Nai Chih, one of the "seven gentlemen" imprisoned for leading the National Salvation Association for war against the Japanese; released after the war began. Later, Finance Commissioner of Anhwei Province - until driven out because he was a democrat.

2. Young men and women under training as Financial Administrators of Anhwei Province -- a training school founded by Mr. Chang Nai-Chih.

3. Where the last Han Emperor argued with the famous statesman and strategist Chu Keh-Liang, to become Prime Minister (3 views).

GROUP D - Plate 38

1. Soldiers of the 84th Army (Kwangsi) at Tsaoyang, Hupeh Province, making straw mattresses for their barracks.

2. I found soldiers of the Kwangsi Army sitting around a sand pit learning to read and write, taught by lower officers or "Political Soldiers".

4. A woman's conference was called in the region in the enemy rear -- here are the delegates.

GROUP E -- Plate 1

Nine unidentified photographs.
GROUP E - Plate 2
Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E - Plate 3
Ten unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 4
Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E - Plate 5
Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 6
Seven unidentified photographs

GROUP E - Plate 7
Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E - Plate 8
Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 9
Nine unidentified photographs

GROUP E - Plate 10
Nine unidentified photographs

GROUP E - Plate 11
Nine unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 12
Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 13
Eight unidentified photographs

VOLUME 42

GROUP E PLATE #14 8 thru GROUP H PLATE #4-6

GROUP E -- Plate 14
Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E - Plate 15
Five unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 16
Six unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 17
Ten unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 18
Six unidentified photographs
GROUP E -- Plate 19

Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 20

Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 21

Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 22

Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 23

Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 24

Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 25

Twelve unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 26

Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 27

Six unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 28

Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 29

Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP E -- Plate 30

Eight unidentified photographs

GROUP F -- Plate 1

3 Photographs of Agnes Smedley each is with a different group.
(Otherwise unidentified)
1 Photograph proof sheet of 35 mm film - 6 views (unidentified)

GROUP F -- Plate 2

2 Photographs of Agnes Smedley each with a different group
(Otherwise unidentified)
16 Photographic proofs of 35 mm film (unidentified)

GROUP F -- Plate 3

1 Photograph Agnes Smedley seated with Chinese woman (not identified)
33 35 mm proofs - unidentified

GROUP F -- Plate 4

43 35 mm proofs (unidentified)

GROUP F -- Plate 5

45 35 mm proofs (unidentified)
1. The automobile hearse bearing the remains of Sun Yat Sen

2. Left to right - Mr. Cheng Pao-Nan, of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps, in charge of the transport of medical supplies over the Burma Road until the Japanese conquest of Burma in 1942. Right: Dr. Robert K. S. Lim, former director of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps who organized the corps and helped found and direct the Emergency Medical Training Schools to retrain the Army Medical Personnel of China. Dr. Robert Lim helped train the medical personnel for the armies fighting under General Joseph Stilwell in Burma. He is expected soon in the U.S.A. Behind them is an ambulance presented to the Chinese Red Cross Medical Corps by the American Red Cross

3. Bombing destruction Chumatien, Honan

4. War torn Kioshan

5. Laohokuo Theatre - War Zone

6. 10 unidentified photographs

1. Military Group with Agnes Smedley in center behind sign "Welcome Miss Agnes Smedley Our Great Friend"

2. Unidentified group of Chinese military officers

3. United China Relief posters with posters advertising Battle Hymn of China by Agnes Smedley

1. Women's Corps - Suchen

1. Unidentified Chinese man

1. Lieutenant Colonel Evans F. Carlson

2. The coal mining town of Ludlow, Colorado

3. "Buck" who first sought my hand in marriage". "Buck", three donkeys packed with pack boxes and water barrels. Cabins in background appear to be same as the Ludlow cabins of the picture 2

4. One unidentified photograph of man with beard

4 unidentified photographs

6 unidentified photographs