"I Want to Go Home Now"

Lyric by JOHNN KENDRICK BANGS.

Music by MANUEL KLEIN.

Andante semplice.

take me back to those old days a thousand years ago. In take me back to old New-York a thousand years ago.
When
take me back to Boston Town a thousand years ago.
Where
take me back to old New-port a thousand years ago.
Where

Copyright MCMV by M. Witmark & Sons.
International Copyright Secured.
give me back Man-hat-tan fair, oh set me down most an-y-where, and give me back the days so glad when Fads and Fan-cies could be had at want to read those mag-a-zines that tell us how the big sar-dines made want to watch the dail-y lives of those who when the time ar-rives, get fill my lungs with Sub-way air; A thou-sand years a-go. 1 fif-teen hun-dred plunks per Fad; A thou-sand years a-go. 1

gold with wa-tered Ker-o-sene; A thou-sand years a-go. 1 mar-ried to their neigh-bor's wives; A thou-sand years a-go. 1

REFRAIN.
want to go home now, in-deed I do;

7294. M.W. & SONS.
I'm anxious to roam now away from you. You're awfully kind folks, but yet 'tis true, I want to go home now, indeed I do.
CHORUS.

We want to go home now, indeed we do;
We're anxious to roam

now away from you.

You're