LYRIC OPERA THEATRE
One of the most popular musicals of all time, Godspell, tells of the last seven days of Jesus' life according to the Gospel of St. Matthew. The Scarecrow is an operatic adaptation of Hawthorne's tale of a living scarecrow, created out of malevolence, as he discovers love and what it means to be human and to determine his own fate. Hello, Jerry! A special engagement concert celebrating the songs and lyrics of Broadway legend Jerry Herman as performed by some of today's biggest Broadway stars.

Godspell runs Sept. 29 & 30; Oct. 1, 4 & 6–8.
Hello Jerry! runs Oct. 28.
The Scarecrow runs Nov. 17 & 18; Dec. 1 & 2.

THEATRE
The Lost Ones is set in a post-apocalyptic future and tells the story of two boys who have lost their childhood to war, while offering an affirmation of the resilience, optimism and generosity of the human spirit. Haroun and the Sea of Stories, a bold theatrical adaptation of Salman Rushdie's novelistic celebration of storytelling, tells the tale of a boy's love for his father, punctuated by messages about the importance of free speech and independent thought. Festival of New Work premieres four new plays by ASU graduate students with two productions, Skylark Dreams and The House Where Nobody Lives, and two staged readings.

The Lost Ones runs Sept. 21, 23, 24 & 28–30; Oct. 1.
Festival of New Work runs Nov. 9–19.

DANCE
Rhythms of Life: Drums and Dances from Africa explores African influence on Western dance with visiting artists Agbe Nunya, Axe Capoeira, Cuban Connection, Joel Valentin-Martinez and Sule Wilson. Moving Ground features guest choreographer Nora Chipaumire of the Urban Bush Women, who sets work combining the spiritual elements of traditional African and Caribbean dance with contemporary, Western dance.

Rhythms of Life: Drums and Dances from Africa runs Nov. 3–5.
Moving Ground runs Nov. 16–19.

ORGAN
An Italian baroque organ built by Domenico Traeri in 1742 joins the Fritts organ this season. The King of Instruments Meets the Instrument of Kings marks the first public performance on the Traeri organ, exploring the sounds of organ and trumpet. It Takes Two to Tango is an evening of duets showcasing the magnificent Fritts organ, with four hands and feet! The 4th Annual Organ Christmas Concert celebrates the music of Christmas in the Organ Hall, appropriately decorated for the occasion.

The King of Instruments Meets the Instrument of Kings runs Sept. 24.
It Takes Two to Tango runs Nov. 5.
4th Annual Organ Christmas Concert runs Dec. 9 & 10.

JAZZ
New this season, the series explores the music of jazz legends as well as works of today's hottest jazz artists. Joe Corral, jazz flutist and local favorite, joins the ASU Concert Jazz Band for a fabulous evening.

Biographies

David Hickman is considered one of the world's pre-eminent trumpet virtuosos and has performed more than 2,000 solo appearances around the world as a recitalist or guest soloist with nearly 500 different orchestras. His tours have taken him to Japan, Korea, Thailand, Spain, Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, Austria, Canada, Mexico, Switzerland and virtually every major American city.

Hickman has released 15 solo albums and CDs encompassing a wide variety of repertoire – from cornet solos by Clarke, Levy and others, to modern concerti by Plog and Plog; from baroque works of Bach, Telemann and Hertel, to recital pieces by Chance, Dello Joio and Mendez; from contemporary works to fun Christmas medleys.

As a noted clinician and author, Hickman has presented workshops on more than 300 major university campuses. He has taught (13 summers) at the Banff Centre for the Arts (Canada), Bremen Trumpet Days (Germany), Rafael Mendez Brass Institute (18 summers), and dozens of music festivals. He has published more than 40 articles and several important trumpet and music texts including The Piccolo Trumpet, The Piccolo Trumpet Big Book, Trumpet Lessons With David Hickman, Vols. 1-5, and Music Speed Reading, a sight reading method used by hundreds of public school systems and universities or conservatories such as the University of North Texas and The Juilliard School. He is owner of Hickman Music Editions, a publishing company devoted to issuing scholarly editions of trumpet music.

David Hickman received his B.M. at the University of Colorado in 1972. He continued graduate work at Wichita State University where he was a graduate trumpet teaching assistant for two years (M.M. - 1974). His primary teachers include Harry McNees, Frank Baird and Walter Myers. He taught at the University of Illinois from 1974 to 1982 and since has been teaching at Arizona State University where he is a Regents' Professor of Music. He has been a member of the Saint Louis Brass Quintet (11 yrs.), Wichita Brass Quintet (2 yrs.), Illinois Brass Quintet (8 yrs.), Baroque Consort, Summit Brass, and the Illinois Contemporary Chamber Players.

As an orchestral musician, Hickman performed as Principal Trumpet of the National Repertory Orchestra (1971 and 1972), Associate Principal of the Wichita Symphony (1972-1974), Principal of the Brevard Music Center Orchestra (1975), Principal, Tanglewood Fellowship Orchestra (1974) and Principal of the Champaign-Urbana Symphony (1974-1980). He has also performed with the Saint Louis Symphony, Los Angeles Philharmonic and the Phoenix Symphony Orchestra. His principal orchestral teachers include Adolph Herseth, Armando Ghitalia and Roger Voisin.

Hickman is founder and president of the acclaimed Summit Brass, a large all-star American brass ensemble dubbed by the press as the "Dream Team of Brass." Summit Brass has released 10 CDs, toured the world and hosted the annual Rafael Mendez Brass Institute which has helped thousands of aspiring brass musicians. He served as president of the International Trumpet Guild from 1977 to 1979 and has presented numerous lectures, clinics, master classes and concerts at major international conventions. His services are sought after worldwide as a judge for prestigious solo and chamber music competitions. In 2005, Hickman received the prestigious Award of Merit from the International Trumpet Guild for his lifetime of achievement and service to the world of trumpet.
Kimberly Marshall maintains an active career as an organist and scholar, performing regularly in North America, Asia and Europe. She currently holds the Patricia and Leonard Goldman Endowed Professorship of Organ at Arizona State University and serves as Artist-in-Residence for Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, Phoenix. She has previously held teaching positions at the Royal Academy of Music, London, and Stanford University. In 1985, she won first prize in the International St. Albans Competition, resulting in prestigious concerts (Royal Festival Hall, London and Chartres Cathedral) and a recording contract with the BBC. The following year, she received the D.Phil. in Music from the University of Oxford. Her compact disc recordings feature music of the Italian and Spanish Renaissance, French Classical and Romantic periods, and works by J. S. Bach.

Her concert engagements include Notre-Dame, Paris, St. Paul’s Cathedral, London, King’s College, Cambridge, Uppsala Cathedral, and the Dormition Abbey in Jerusalem. She enjoys tailoring programs to the styles of the instruments she plays, and has performed on many historical organs, such as the Couperin organ at Saint-Gervais, Paris, the Gothic organ in Sion, Switzerland, and the Cahman organ in Leufstabruk, Sweden. Kimberly has been a recitalist and workshop leader during recent National Conventions of the American Guild of Organists (Dallas, 1994; New York, 1996; Denver, 1998; Seattle, 2000; Los Angeles 2004). From 1996-2000, she was affiliated with the Organ Research Center in Göteborg, Sweden, where she taught and performed; under the aegis of GOArt, she organized the conference “The Organ in Recorded Sound,” and has edited the proceedings of this, the first-ever conference devoted to sound recordings of the organ. During the summer of 2001, she appeared in Seoul for the Korean Association of Organists and in Toronto for the Convention of the Royal College of Canadian Organists. Her recording of Chen Yi’s organ concerto with the Singapore Symphony was released in 2003 on the BIS label, and her recording of late-medieval organ music, “Gothic Pipes,” was released by Loft Recordings in 2004.

Marshall spent the spring of 2005 on sabbatical in Pistoia, Italy, where she researched early Italian organ music and performed on many European historical organs, including the famous instrument in Naumburg, Germany, which Bach examined. During the summer of 2006, she presented concerts and workshops on early music in Sweden and Israel, and she will be a featured artist for the 2007 Early English Organ Project in Oxford.
