"I Know A Girl?"

Words and Music by LESLIE STUART.

Allegro moderato. (Andante)

Piano.

1. (A) I know a girl, a dandy girl and a daisy, As simple a girl as ever you'll see; I know a girl who 2. (B) I know a girl, as fair a girl as there may be, As saucy a girl as ever you'll see; I know a girl she's 3. (C) I know a girl, the best of numerous captures Betwixt and between a flirt and a prude; She's just the girl to mit she's Queen of the Earth; This dreadful girl in send-ing you crazy, crazy, As sim-ple a dai-sy perk-y and cute as baby, As cu-n-ing as may be best of your ma-ny cap-tures, Wh'ud send us in rap-tures? nev-er would call a beau-ty, In sim-pIest du-ty as you'll see? She's a lady, and don't forget, She's with a wink or a sigh? She's a lady, but aw-ful pert, She's what name has she? She's the girl in the nur-ry rhyme, You've is always at sea. She's a ter-ror, and she's my cook, On not said yes to an-thing yet; But you can bet this done so much my feel-ings to hurt; Though I'm a- lert I'll heard her his-try many a time. The bell would chime, the
