What has the night time to do with the Girl.

Words by WILLIAM JEROME. Music by JEAN SCHWARTZ.

Valse moderato.

Of the stars now-a-days they keep handing out praise, and the Love is always the same, and it's really a shame to keep something applies to the moon, Of the glories of night we are harp-ing on Venus and Mars, Tho' they swear that it's blind, still it's told with delight by the ten-or who sings out of tune, Of the easy to find without aid from the moon or the stars. Why a Copyright MCMV by JEROME H. REMICK & CO.

Entered according to the act of Parliament of Canada in the year MCMV, by Jerome H. Remick & Co., in the Department of Agriculture. bench in the dell, they still lovingly tell
and the kisses they kiss
in the dark quickly kindles a spark, causes Cupid at

stole on the sly
But love is a game we could once to appear His sly little dart it can play just the same, if there wasn't a star in the sky. Oh! puncture a heart, yes at any old time of the year. Oh!

Chorus.

what has the nighttime to do with the girl, girl,

What has the nighttime &c 3.
What has the star light to do with your pearl, between me and you any old time will do for a whirl, whirl, whirl. It isn't the night that brings you delight, It's the girl, girl, girl.