Bessie on the Board Walk

Words by JACK APPLETON

Music by ORESTE VESSELLA

Allegretto Moderato

on the pier he met her, Breezy Bessie was her name
At listen to the ocean, Breezy Bessie did not care tensions quite upset her, But she liked them just the same

He shine she had a notion, So she caught a millionaire

Copyright MCMVII by JEROME H. REMICK & Co.
Entered according to the Act of Parliament of Canada in the year MCMVII by Jerome H. Remick & Co. in the Department of Agriculture.
played devoted lover, For a week and then Oh, my! Bes-sie pays for dress, and jew-els, But he ne-ver sees his wife For his shook him for an-oth-er, Leav-ing him to sad-ly sigh. Bes-sie on the board walk, Leads a ve-ry bree-zy life. Oh

REFRAIN.

Bes-sie you're so dres-sy on the old board walk You break me then you shake me How the folks will talk Come

Bessie on the Board Walk. 4
hear the music on the pier And Hark to the ocean my dear
While I whisper into your ear, On the old board walk.
Oh! Bessie you're so dressy on the old board walk.

Bessie on the Board Walk. 4
break me then you shake me How the folks will talk

Come hear the music on the pier, And hark to the ocean my dear While I whisper into your ear, On the old board walk.