If You Are True To Me.

Words and Music
By MANUEL KLEIN.

Andante moderato.

The time has come that we must say fare-well, dear,
This part-ing
I do not need to tell you I'll be true, dear.
For love a-

hour would be filled with pain, But that a voice with-in me seems to lone can in your ab-sence give The prom-ise of a fu-ture bright with

Copyright MCMVII by M.Witmark & Sons.
International Copyright Secured. tell, dear, That you and I will surely meet again. 'Tis not in you, dear, And hope eternal in my heart shall live. My hand in vain that we our troth have plight ed. However yours, and yours in mine is lying. And there shall dark this hour may seem to be, I know that we again shall be u-stay until eternity. The symbol of a love that is un-

M.W. & SONS 7947 e
ni-ted. And know-ing this, you will be true to me. dy-ing. While I am true to you, and you to me. If Tempo di Valse.

you are on-ly true to me, The world may onward drift. Your hon-or bright shall be my light, And all the shad-ows lift. The wait-ing years will

M.W. & SONS 7947 e
know no tears, For some day I will be. At your dear side what e'er be-tide, If you are true to me.

con anima.

you are true to me. At your dear side what cresc. e acc. f con anima.

e'er be-tide, If you are true to me.

M.W. & SONS 7947 c