Keep on Smiling

Moderato

Neath the Maple shade, sits a tearful maid, for her
As he cheers her heart, all her frowns depart, all her

Tender heart feels blue, And she sighs and sighs, Till her Sorrow goes away, And she cries "Dear me!", Down the Sweetheart cries, don't be frowning, dearest Sue, Tho' your Lan, just see, there's a wedding, Jack to-day, There's the dad has said, that we cannot wed. He'll con-bride to be sh! if I were she. Listen sent love by how the sweet bells ring Keep on smil-ing dear, ban-ish the spring Nature smiles to-day all the each sad tear world seems gay Soon we'll hear the sweet bells ring Keep on

And the smiling lovers sing

Chorus

smiling, sweet-heart, smiling don't be grieving There's a time for me and

Keep on Smiling, 9
you To the church we'll go together and the weather will be smiling on us too Tho' the day seems long and dreary, just be cheery, For I always want you near Promise you will be my ray of sun shine, Keep on smiling dear. Keep on dear. Last
