Take Me Where There's A Big Brass Band.

Tempo di Valse.

Words by JACK DRISLANE.

A Waltzing Song.

Music by THEODORE MORSE.

1. Where will we go next Sunday, dear, if skies are all blue and weather's clear

2. Where will we go in June-time, dear, on our honey moon, the day is near

"Where will we go to spend the day, just name any place, I'll show the way."
"Let's take a sail o'er ocean blue, to any old place that pleases you."

"The maid's reply as she gave a sigh made the boy look with surprise."
"Shook her head "I'd much rather stay on land."

CHORUS.

"Take me where there's a big brass band, playing grand, Take me where..."

near the sand, any where, I don't care as long as there's something doing. 'Round the place where I'd like to go, breezes blow, soft and low, you will make me care if you take me

1. where there's a big brass band. 2. band.
