Wont You Waltz "Home Sweet Home" With Me, For Old Times Sake?

INTRO.
Waltz tempo Moderato.

Words and Music by HERBERT INGRAHAM.

The lights in the It's June-time, the ball-room were flashing, The dancers were happy and gay; A young man sat watching his sweetheart,

Copyright 1907 by Maurice Shapiro Broadway & 39th St. N.Y.
International Copyright Secured. All Rights Reserved.
They'd quarrelled and parted one day.
   Of happiness won, and of love.
   One

more dance the ball will be over,
   "Home-sweet-home"
   is the tune they will play,

---

And their thoughts take them back to the night of the ball,
   And to

Wont' You Waltz Home etc.
heard him softly say:

"Won't you waltz 'home-sweet-home' with me, for old times' sake? To see another's arms available round you dear, makes my heart ache."

REFRAIN, tenderly.

Wont. You Waltz Home etc.
Won't you be the same to me,

Like you always used to be?

Won't you waltz 'home-sweet-home' with me for old times' sake?

Won't You Waltz Home etc.