Ask Her While The Band Is Playing.

Millicent and Female Chorus.

Lyric by GLEN MAC DONOUGH.

Music by VICTOR HERBERT.

Moderato.

If you a-If with your

-dore a frost-y maid... And are a- afraid... Your love to speak... If when you special precious pet... You've chanced to get... In-to a spat... Then for a meet your own-est girl... Your sense swirl... Your knees grow weak... This is I week of dark distress... You've failed to guess... Where you are at... If woe and Copyright MCMVIII by Chas K. Harris.

Rights for Mechanical Instruments Reserved.
International Copyright Secured.

Ask her while the Band is playing.  S. N. 3 think the thing for you. At once to do — To end your grief both dark and grim — Un-to the brim — Have filled your doubt — Try at a ball, To tell her all — And let the cup — Then at a ball, For mercy call — And let the Tempo di Valse.

music help you out — Ask her while the music back you up —

band is playing — let the cornet speak for you

(Correc)

Ask her while the Band is playing. S. N. 3
While the cel-lo sweet and mel-low aids the win-some maid to woo What you think you'd like to tell her.

(Cello)

Let the soul-ful o-boe play Ask her while the band is play-ing She'll never say you nay.

Ask her while the Band is playing. S. N. 3