Lives Miss Susie-an-a, she's the sweetest girl I know,
Met her last December and we're going to wed in June,

my! When my work is over 'mongst the sugar cane, my! Susie-an-a's going to be my blushing bride,

To her home I go just at the bend of the lane;
I can see myself standing close by her side;

'Neath her cabin window I am
'Deed I'll be a happy person

singing this refrain,
when the knot is tied,

Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, my!
CHORUS

Can't you see... the night is falling? Whippoorwill is singing low?

Don't you hear... the crickets calling? Calling you and me to go?

Susie, don't you keep me waiting; If you do... 'twill cause me pain...

The moon is shining, and my heart is pining, Meet me down among the sugar cane.
