A Little China Doll

Lyric by
HARRY WILLIAMS

Music by
EGBERT VAN AL-STYNE

Down at a toy shop up on a
Now take the soldier poor little in strict time.

string boy
Dangled a china doll,
It must have killed him too,
She loved a soldier that used to swing
But they discovered much to their joy
Right next the doll so small
But now you see so heavy was he
He didn't care to have her up there
One day the string gave way
And it was plain to see
The fall broke the doll
Her head heart and all
The fall broke the doll
Her china that's all
While he was from Germany

A Little China Dell 3
CHORUS.

Dolls are for children and hearts are for men.

Hearts are like china they break now and then. So don't wear your heart on a string dear, that's all. For you might be dropped like a little china doll.

A Little China Doll 3