You Are All The World To Me.
DUET: Dorothy and Stanhope.

Lyric by ROBERT B. SMITH.

Music by RAYMOND HUBBELL.

Moderato.

STANHOPE.

Sup - pose that we nev - er in all Sup - pose we dis - cov - er that as these years had ev - er ev - en met, sweet-heart and lov - er we must part,

You and
You and

Copyright MCMVIII by Chaee. K. Harris.
Rights for Mechanical instruments reserved.
International Copyright Secured.
No stars ever shining clouds with With nothing but sorrow left for out silver lining and no sunshine coming from our us on the morrow as the years so drearily go

DOROTHY.
sky,

Then those years would be wasted for we'd by,

Oh, to meet and then never would be

Sol! il Basso.

never have tasted the delight that we so well

worse then to never and I thought that was pretty

You are all, etc. 4 know. We'd have just gone on living without bad. But to once know about you and to cause for thanksgiving but it never was meant to be so.

then do without you well it's hard to give up what we've had.

Refrain,

Oh I don't know why I love you, Why I'm always thinking of you, And I don't know why I

You are all, etc, 4
always sigh where ever I may be,
You are all that I most long for,
You are all that I am strong for,
You are all I sing this song for,
You are all the world to me.

You are all, etc. 4