Bonnie Annie Laurie

Words by HARRY WILLIAMS.  Music by EGBERT VAN ALSTYNE

Andante moderato

I know a lassie with a famous name, she's a One night, said Annie, as they strolled along the heath the jewel rare; If I'm in love with her I'm not to blame, she's so soft blue moon, If I must marry to avoid that song, let us sweet and fair. Up to her cottage every moonlight night, like the marry soon. You'll make a husband who is kind, I know, though

Copyright MCMIX by JEROME H. REMICK & Co., New York - Detroit.
Copyright, Canada, MCMIX by Jerome H. Remick & Co.
flight of a dove on the wing, Sure I swiftly sail, and voice gave me a pain in the past.
I said "Here's the ring, but never fail My little song to sing.
let me sing Once more, and that's the last."

CHORUS.
Bonnie Annie Laurie, Oh I don't know what to do. I'm sad, I'm glad, and then I'm mad, A

Bonnie Annie Laurie
Bout my love for you, I can not live without you.
And the reason's plain as day.
For Bonnie Annie Laurie, You've stolen my heart away.