"Gee! But She's A Wonderful Girl."

Words by
EDGAR LESLIE.

Music by
AL. PIANTADOSI.

Moderato.

Pret-ty near-ly ev'-ry fel-low, Finds his
It is sel-dom you'll take chanc-es, With a heart is rath-er mellow, Aft-er he has read the thought in wom-an's eyes, E-ven maid-en's flirt-ing glanc-es, But the mind will nev-er dis-o bey the heart, And when Copyright MCMIX by Harry Cooper Music Pub.Co. though he never shows it, You can gamble that he knows it, For your linked by Mister Cupid, He will laugh and call it stupid If the conscience is a thing that never lies; I knot he tied you try to get a part; With never had a longing for a girl to call my own, I me it's not that sympathetic mercenary love, It's never knew a girl had eyes where in the love light shone. But not a case of Pidgey - widgey or little Turtle Dove, We

Geel! But She's A Wonderful Girl. 4 honestly and truly, boys, I've found out I was wrong, Be-never o-ver do the thing And I am proud to tell, It's cause the own-er of such eyes made me sing this song:

sim-ply this that I love her, and she loves me as well:

CHORUS.

Gee! but she's a won-der-ful girl, A won-der-ful girl is she, The kind you of-ten read a-bout but ve-ry sel-dom see, She

Gee! But She's A Wonderful Girl. 4 understands the game of love from A to Z She says, what she means and means what she says, My heart's in a whirl I'm always dreaming of her, Why! you could not help but love her.

Gee! she's a wonderful girl... Gee! she's a wonderful girl...

Gee! But She's a Wonderful Girl