Mandy How Do You Do?

Words and Music by PERCY WENRICH

Moderato

Honey, the moon am a shin-in;
Hear that old whip-poor-will,
Honey, don't keep me a-guess-in;
Just you have got me right.

Honey, my heart am a pin-in;
You know it's mighty distress-in;

Just cause it can't keep still.
Wont you say "yes" to night.
Ev'ry one must love some one;
be content, that is why I'm waitin' hon;

Ev'ry night when day is done,
Just like music heaven sent,
waitin' to sing to you.
when your sweet voice I hear.

CHORUS.

How de do Miss Mandy?
You look fine and

dandy, sweet as lass's candy, and you always did, oh, oh, oh you kid. It's just nine o' clock, dear, 'spose we take a walk, dear, have a little talk, dear. Mandy, how do you do? do?
