

Mrs Hall,

As you have not given me your direction in full, I am afraid of ordering the money you want to be sent to you by Post- But if you will go to any Bank and draw as you will be desired to do by the Gentlemen there, for the sum of Twenty Pounds on Messrs Drummond & Co Charing Cross. I will direct them to answer the draft {and sighn}- On your shewing this letter, I have no doubt that this matter will be settled-

[page break]

As to Ellen Henry's Annuity, it may be paid to the time you mention & then stopped- which you will be so good as to explain to M^r Aird.-

Your well-wisher

Al. Noel Byron

Fordhook.-Acton

Middlesex

Nov. 4. 1835