Sing Kate, Sing

By BENJ. HAPGOOD BURT

Waltz time

Miss Katie O'Shane was a plain looking dame, Who When Kate had a beau she would turn the gas low, And One day they told Kate it was getting so late, To

In strict time sang what is known as soprano, She hadn't a chance any start in to beat the piano, And when she would sing about grab the first man she could find, So she looked around until man to entrance, Unless she was at the piano. She'd love in the spring, He'd say what a lovely soprano. Her one day she found A man who was totally blind. She

Copyright MCMIX by JEROME H. REMICK & Co., New York - Detroit

Copyright, Canada, MCMIX by Jerome H. Remick & Co. pass'd thirty four and a little bit more, So when a young voice was so loud there would soon be a crowd Of neigh-bors, out had him dead right, but he got back his sight, And then as he man came to call, Her fa- ther and moth-er would side of the gate, And when she'd be-gin ev'-ry flew through the gate, A par-rot next door, who had nudge one an-oth-er. And wis-per to Kate in the hall.

one would start in, And shout through the win-dows at Kate.
heard her be-fore, In sym-pa-thy sang un-to Kate.

CHORUS.

Sing, Kate, sing; Sing a-bout lov-ers and love in the Spring, Sing, Kate, sing; Don't let him go till he buys you a ring. Won't you please sing something, you're thirty-five in the Spring. Get a gait on you Kate, or you'll wait till too late, So for Heaven's sake sing. Sing Kate, Sing.