Swinging On The Old Grape Vine.
Duet by Karl and Christina.

Lyric by VINCENT BRYAN.

Music by HARRY VON TILZER.

Piano.

Sing- ing in the ar- bor like two
I will cling to you, my dear, and song birds in a nest,

you will cling to me,

Sing- ing!
Cling- ing!

Swinging on the grape-vine with the one I love the best.
Closer than the grape-vine now is clinging to the tree.

Swinging dreamily, listening to the humming of the 'hRound my heart you'll twine, Through the years our tender love will honey bees; Robins fondly crooning in the leafy trees;

stronger grow; Safely on my breast you'll rest, no fears you'll know;

Hear the gentle music of the softly whispering breeze;
Dreaming of the happy hours we spent so long ago;

Swinging on the old grape vine.
Singing nature's sweetest melody,
Swinging dearie, on the old grape vine.

Refrain.

Swinging on the old grape vine,

Like the happy birds at play,
Where the flowers bloom;

Breathing sweet perfume,
Sweet-er than the new mown hay, Oh, Dear-ie,

Swinging on the old grape vine.
In your eyes the love-light gleams; Brighter than the glad sun-shine;

Gently to and fro,

Up and down we go, Swing-ing on the old grape-vine.

Swinging on the old grape vine.
