Piano.

Most every girl of twenty
I know some girls quite home-ly,
Who

Longs for her wed-ding day.
My birth-days have been
Some-times I feel so have hus-bands fond and true.

plenty.

Still, my wed-ding's far a-way.

That I don't know what to do.

I love Tom, Dick, and Harry,
My disposition's sunny.

If one proposed I'd marry.
They call at my home, each ready money.
The boys say I'm great, but says I'm his own,
But they won't propose while they tarry.
Each hesitates to ask me to be his honey.

Refrain.
I wish I could do the proposing,
I want someone to love, I've spent a long time composing proposals that fit like a glove.

Some night while spooning with someone.

I'll blush as red as a rose, I'll pop the question, and then it's done. Gee! why can't a girl propose? I pose?
