The Dear Little Ghost Of Your Smile.

Lyric by BOUGH & ADAMS.

Music by
JOS. E. HOWARD

Moderato.

There's something that haunts the dusk everywhere.
I'm never alone at sea or on shore, when something waits 'round the turn of the stair.

It's people are gone you're there even more, you

there in the corner of the room It dances in fire-light sat in the chair across the way, At dinner with me to Copyright 1905 by Chas. K. Harris.

Miss nobody from Starland. Rights for Mechanical Instruments Reserved.
The dear little ghost of your smile. International Copyright Secured.
gloom — And deep in the pools where lilies are This day, — And when I am wrinkled grey and old, The Something is hidden too — It peers from the smoke of ghost of your smile will be, — The thing for my heart to my cigar. It's all that I have of you.

have and to hold; The best that life gave to me.

Refrain.

On-ly the ghost of your smile sweet-heart, Lingers with me all the

The Dear Little Ghost Of Your Smile. 3
while, sweet-heart Mem-ries of you I can call at will, Your face dear is haunt-ing me still. I can re-mem-ber your eyes of blue, I can re-mem-ber the lips of you, But I treas-ure most,

on-ly the ghost, The dear lit-tle ghost of your smile. smile.

The Dear Little Ghost Of Your Smile.