1. My wife and I don't get along; we simply fight and fight, I
2. I've stood an awful lot from her and never said a word, But, married her to win a bet, It really serves me right. The on the level, as a wife She simply was a bird. At love she once declared was mine, Has simply turned to hate, So night when I'd come home from work, Just tired out and dead, I'd

I've made up my mind to visit old Nevada state, always find her eating soda crackers in the bed.

Chorus

1. I'm on my way to Reno, I'm leaving town today. Give
2. I'm on my way to Reno, I'm leaving town today. It's my regards to all the boys and girls along Broadway, liberty or death with me, my hair is turning gray.

Im On My etc. 2
Once I get my liberty, no more wedding bells for me,
Reno life is simply great; they grant divorces while you wait.

Shouting the battle cry of freedom.
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.

VERSE III.

It's awful when you tie yourself up to a suffragette,
And suffer, suffer, suffer till your brains are all to let,
She had the sign on me all right, I really will admit,
She used to make me stay at home and try and learn to knit.

CHORUS III.

I'm on my way to Reno, I'm never coming back,
And if I do I surely hope the train runs off the track,
Life in Reno must be grand, husbands marching hand in hand,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.

VERSE IV.

There was a time when South Dakota was the proper place,
But when compared with Reno, it was never in the race,
The only real Arcadia from Frisco east to Maine,
Just think of it, the Judge and Jury meet you at the train.

CHORUS IV.

I'm on my way to Reno, to break the Marriage Knot,
You just get off the train and drop a nickel in the slot,
You just get off the train and then,
Turn round and then jump on again,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom.
