Katy-Did.

In The Swim.

Lyric by
WM. CARY DUNCAN.

Music by KARL HOSCHNA.

Allegretto.

Piano.

If you want to be in the social swim, So -
You must wear a hat with a brim like that, And a ci - e - ty's swag - ger set, You must cul - ti - vate a gown that looks like sin, With a hob - ble-skirt that...

Copyright MCMX by M. Wiltmark & Sons.
International Copyright Secured.
languid air, and develop an innocent baby-stare, And fits so tight, the uninitiated might im-carry a gold lorgnette! You must learn to dangle a agine they poured you in! You must learn to walk like a duke or two, And a bogus prince or so; And drive a drag and Chinese doll, And dance the Boston so— Play bridge all day and haught-en-ter a nag Or two at the Gar-den show! You can't tell a cob from a i-ly, say: "Oh, part-ner, you're so slow!" You can't tell a trump from a:

thing-um-a-bob, But no-bod-y will know! Bi-cy-cle pump, But no-bod-y will know! In the REFRAIN.

swim, in the swim, That's where we will be, Afloat on the tip-pee-ty-tip-top wave of pop-u-la-rity.

In the swim, In the swim, That fasc-i-na-ting co-ter-ie.

Yes, you can bet we're go-ing to get our lit-tle toot-sie woot-sies wet, In the so-cial sea!

M.W.& SONS 1882-4