Life is a Merry Go Round

Lyric by JOHN L. GOLDEN

Tempo di Valse

Copyright MCMX by JEROME H. REMICK & Co. New York & Detroit.

Copyright, Canada, MCMX by Jerome H. Remick & Co.

Paddy was certain to say, it was fine. When people come float off a Hamburg American ship. His wife from the plained, he'd say: "Cheer up and smile. For when you are dead, you are win-dow said: "Keep walking round. Don't bring that in here, or we dead a long while; if life isn't all that you'd like it to all will be drowned;" So Thomas kept cir-cling the house in the

be, Remember this mot-to and take it from me:"
rain. And each time he came round she heard this re-frain:

Life is a Merry Go Round 4
CHORUS

"Life is only a merry-go-round. The more I go round, the more I have found, when a man is dead and he's stuck in the ground, The merry-go-round'll go round and round." For round.

Life is a Merry Go Round