DUET.—(Rosalie and Dick.)

"SILLY COCK-A-DOO-DOO!"

Words by
C. S. McLellan.

Music by
IVAN CARYLL.

Moderato.

DICK.

1. I would crow like chanci-cleer
2. Chanci-cleer's a noble bird,

If you said
Steps up high,

DICK.

You were new quite ready, dear,
Chanci-cleer may be absurd,

To be wed,
So am I.

DICK.

If you said you'd marry me
I will tell you why it's so,

Then my feet would carry me
Both of us are proud you know.

Copyright, MCMX, by Chappell & Co Ltd.
DICK.
Strut - ing so as if I'd lost my head;
When our la - dy goes walk - ing, walk - ing by,

ROSALIE.
That, per - haps, would en - ter - tain Ma and you,
Do be care - ful chan - ti - cleer, Do, I pray,

ROS.
But you might be thought in - sane If you crew,
You do not ad - dress your mere Fi - an - cée

ROS.
Ev - ry - one would sure - ly say Should you walk this fun - ny way,
I'm a chick - en seep - ti - cal, Not a mere re - cep - ta - cle

24557.
BOY: Silly cock-a-doodle-doo! I crow because it's silly cock-a-doodle-doo! And glad that I am.

ROSALIE: You're just a silly

DICK: Worship you, so I am proud as any

ROSALIE: Cock-a-doodle, Cock-a-doodle-doo! -doo!

DICK: Cock-a-doodle, Cock-a-doodle-doo! -doo!

24557. 4 (f)