"TAKE A STEP!"
Dancing Duet.

Words by ADRIAN ROSS

Music by
LIONEL MONCKTON

Allegro moderato

PRUDENCE

TONY

Piano

Will you kindly tell me how I should do? Well, you take a step, take a step, take a step!

Copyright MCMX by Chappell & Co.Ltd.
Take another step,

I'm afraid you'll find me sadly too slow.

Take a step, take a step!

Only take a step, Take a step, take a step!
Tempo di Valse

I'm afraid I shall make many faults!

Never mind the amount Hold to

I'll remember to count One, two, three!

And remember to count One, two, three!
One, two, three! One, two, three! One, two, three! One, two, three! Now we'll try!
Oh, you will drop me! After a try!
Not I!

Day of it I'll get the way of it! Bye and bye! Bye and bye!
DANCE

really learning how it's done, It seems to me delightful fun! And if it does not weary you, Once more we'll take it through!

PRUDENCE

C 6337-9
Tempo I.

I am sure to make a blunder, somehow.

Tempo I.

Only take a step,
Am I going right, I wonder,
Till

Take a step, take a step!

now?..............
You're a perfect dancing

Yes, you take a step, Take a step, take a step!

mas-ter,
For

I can take a step, Take a step, take a step!
Now I'd like to try it faster, We will!

We will!