Father's Allowed To See Us Twice A Year

Words by
HARRY WILLIAMS

Music by
EGBERT VAN ALSTYNE

Allegro

Piano:

"An awful thing occurred at home," said
"I ought to be a hero," daddy said.

"Little Reggie Kirk. "Up on my soul I do believe I'll have to go to said, a last a luck! If I could win a Marathon I'll bet she'll take me work. They fired me out of college but I faint ed dead a back; He bought a pair of running shoes and ran till he was

Copyright MCMX by JEROME H. REMICK & Co., New York & Detroit
Copyright, Canada; MCMX by Jerome H. Remick & Co.

way, "When I came home to make a touch and heard the children say?"
lame, And Ma was there to see the race but still its just the same.

CHORUS

Fathers allowed to see us twice a year, Twice a Fathers allowed to see us twice a year, Twice a year, twice a year, When he comes round he year, twice a year. When he went round he always leaves a little money here. For mother looked just like the handle on a spear. To mother

Fathers Allowed 3
dear, I won-der why! He used to break-fast with us ev-ry morn-ing dear, as thin as that! He dashed a-long the mea-dows and the valleys,

And on our cakes mo-las-ses he would smear. But one And through the woods he bounded like a deer. He was day he kissed the cook and we told Ma to come and look. Now father's allowed to run-ning ex-tra fine Until he scared a por-cu-pine. Now father's allowed to see us twice a year.

see us twice a year.

Fathers Allowed 3