I'll Try Anything Once

Words by A. SEYMOUR BROWN
Music by NAT. D. AYER

Tempo di Valse

Ma-ble was wise and she came from New York;
Ma-ble one evening went out with a rub-ens thought;
Sure, she was sweet and demure for she walked with her eyes cast down;

Do-wn to a small coun-try town—she was sweet and de-mure.
Went to have ice cream and cake—she was sweet and de-mure.
Sure, she was sweet and demure for she walked with her eyes cast down—fix you up fine, Ma - ble smiled and said "List - en my dear!"

CHORUS

I'll try an - y - thing once, An - y - thing once, An - y - thing once,
I'll try an - y - thing once, An - y - thing once, An - y - thing once,
I'll try an - y - thing once, An - y - thing once, An - y - thing once,
I'll try anything once, As long as it's only for I'll try anything once, And I need lots of money to I'll try anything once, Repair it as soon as you can;
Life at its best is as short as can be. And I spend;
Of course if I find that we can't agree Then for Fix my machine underneath this big tree For I don't want to live all in vain, So I'll try anything
Re - no I'll just take a train, But I'll try anything think we are going to have rain, But I'll try anything once, If I like it I'll try it again.

I'll Try Anything Once. 3
