I've a Garden in Sweden.

American Version by Bayer & Norworth.

Moderato. by Murphy, Owens, and Lipton.

Piano:

A boy, a Swedish
The boy, the Swedish

A boy to America came to stay, For a boy said 'neath the pine trees tall, I've a

A little holiday, on a farm down Jersey cothage, garden small, for the fairest flower of Copyright MCMXI by Norworth Pub.Co.

All Rights Reserved. International Copyright Secured. way all. A girl, my little rose, in the quaint old garden stray'd And on bended knee, be joy my life would be For my garden sweet would made his plea and whispered pretty maid.

be complete, if you will bloom for me.

Chorus.

I've a garden in Sweden, In dear old Sweden, Where 'ev'-ry kind of po-sie grows.
And my gar-den in Sweden would be just like Eden,

If you were there, my Amer-i-can Beau-ty Rose.