Mary Went ’Round And Around And Around (With A Bumpty Umpty Ay!)

Words by ALFRED BRYAN

Music by FRED FISCHER

Waltz moderato

When Mary first went to the sea-shore,
The great Scenic Railway she splled faster,
Said she nearly went out of her mind.

Copyright 1911 by Maurice Shapiro, Broadway & 39th St., N.Y.

International Copyright Secured.
All Rights Reserved.
she, "That there motion agrees with my notion, I think I will up with a dash and came down with a smash, then she grabbed at the go for a ride? She took a front seat smiling fellow behind. But he got a hair-cut that sweetly And as she sat down made a bow morning There was nothing to hold on to there

Someone in the crowd heard her whisper out loud: "If
And all you could see was some French lingerie, Two

Mary Went 'Round &c. 4 mother could just see me now! She leaned back as nice as you feet sticking up in the air. She started to holler and please, enjoying the beautiful breeze. "Stop that ear won't you please let me out?" but

CHORUS

Mary went 'round and 'round and 'round, with a bumpety bumpety ay! 'Round and 'round like a Merry go round, Yelling "Hip-hip-hip-hooray! Hooray!" She stood on her feet, and she smiled nice and sweet as the band began to play. When the car it went up, pretty Mary fell down, on her Hip-hip-hip-hooray!"