drives all care away. It gives to you happiness complete. And life and love it will prolong. It's found in a melody so sweet, The strain of a very old song. All hearts its many charms have found. All lovers know it's mag-ic sound. There's mel-o-dy found in the wan-dring breeze That sings as it passes you by. There's mel-o-dy, too, in the rus-tling trees That ca-rols a soft re-ply. The song of the sea is a rare old air, A song that the ages have sung,

There's music in ev'rything, ev'rywhere, But just one song that keeps you young:

It's the melody of love

And the sweetest one of all. Like the coo-ing of a dove As the evening shadows fall.

Ev'ry heart that beats below, Ev'ry bird that flies above, Knows the sunny and serious, Sweetly delirious Song of Love.
