That Hypnotizing Man.

Words by LEW BROWN.

Music by ALBERT Von TILZER.

Moderato.

When you feel queer and you Hark I can hear very hear some-one whisper in your ear,

Clear that same voice ring in my ear,

Come over here:

Don't make a sound for you'll know that you've found a man to fear,
Take him away can't you hear what I say? I'm full of fear,

Your eyes grow dim and your head starts to swim and then you
I feel so strange and I know by this change that he is stare,

From your head to toes,
Seems I've got to stay that strange feeling flows, Then your eyes will close, and you start to doze, and I must obey, For I hear him say, you are mine to day,

(Spoken ad lib)

With his hands he just commands you sleep, sleep, sleep, sleep.
While his eyes grow twice their size you sleep, sleep, sleep, sleep.

That Hypnotizing Man 4.
REFRAIN (Not fast)

Oh! that hypnotizing man!

Oh! that hypnotizing man:

When he makes those motions at you
Ev'ry thing he bids you must do,

Look out he'll get you if he can keep a-wake, keep a-wake, keep a-wake,

That Hypnotizing Man. A.
Oh! those wonderful eyes
they seem to tantalize,
When that feeling o'er you does creep,
Your eyes are open but you're fast a sleep,
That stare, is over there,

have a care, he's everywhere,
That Hypnotizing man.
