What Is The Use To Remember
When The Girl You Remember Forgets?

ARThUR LONGBRAKE.

Moderato

ED. EDWARDS.

Come Jack, old boy,
She seemed so good
No sign of joy
I thought she would

Lights up your face to-day,
Always be just the same,
No smile or song,
And though 'twas strange

Something is wrong, Can I help you Jack any way?
There came a change, I don't think that I was to blame;

Jack then replied, "Have you ever tried To give up the Al-ways was square, I played the game fair, My heart beat for girl you would wed?" It's hard to forget, My her ev'ry day, But she said good-bye, And heart's aching yet, Though I know you were right when you said, that's why I try Just to reason it out in your way.

While your heart is aching, breaking,
She's in somebody's arms you can bet;
Look around pal and you'll find another,
There's a girl in the world for you yet,
So what is the use to remember when the girl you remember forgets?
