Moderato

Climbing vines and the moss rose twines Round the Isle a-fraid, for the ever-glade Seems to cabin where my dark Diana sleeps; Night-winds sigh, and the croon a scary lulla-by to you; Folks declare there's a hoot owl's cry is e-nough to give a dark'y the creeps. Sleep, my ghost in there and I disrespect the spook is after us two. Our teeth
