"Excuse Me! - Certainly!"

Lyric by
CHAS. BROWN

Music by
VICTOR HOLLÄNDER

1. (Cont'd)
   (Dickie) The one thing I hate is a man who runs
   Is a man who runs, who runs!

2. (Dickie) When once in the Alps, I went Yachting, (Cont'd) Rugs
   When foot-ball I played for my college legs.

3. (Dickie) After another man's wife, (Cont'd) And I said, in the Alps! (Cont'd) And Pitching was great, so they say. (Cont'd) And Saw a canoe full of Indians, (Cont'd) And Once in a hot game of baseball, (Cont'd) And

   Brag all

Copyright, MCMXII, by Jos. W. Stern & Co.
British Copyright Secured
English Theatre and Music Hall rights strictly reserved Deposited conforme a la ley de Republica Mexicana en el ano MCMXII por Jos. W. Stern y CIA. Propietarios Nueva York y Mexico of it the rest of his life. (Dickie) I hate bragging too, though once bent on obtaining our scalps. (Camille) I saw him! I chanced to be kicked seven goals in one day. (Camille) That's nothing. I once, in a boxed. (Dickie) In my new Antoine, I won a plane. (Count) How on my God, with no food: that I swear, earth did you do it? I'll tell you, in the gloves, I'd put horse shoes for started for China, but missed it. So flew round the world once a six months. (Dickie) Well, how did you do? (Camille) I lived on the sand which is luck! (Camille) You must excuse me! (Dickie) Certain, again (Dickie & Count) You must excuse me! (Camille) Certain, there! (Count) You must excuse me! (Camille) Certain,