Floating Down The River On The Alabam.

Words by LEW BROWN.

Music by ALBERT VON TILZER.

Moderat Marcia.

I feel so What's that I

sad, hear,
Oh! no I'm glad,
What's that I hear,
Because I
I heard the

Copyright 1913 by Albert Von Tilzer 1452 Broadway New York City
British Copyright Secured International Copyright Secured
Copyright Assigned MCMXIII to the Broadway Music Corporation 455 West 49th St. N.Y.
All rights reserved to use this work upon the parts of instruments serving to reproduce it mechanically got a note in which my baby wrote, She's waiting captain say we're not so far away, From Tennessee.
there, see, She's waiting there, Way The
From Tennessee,

down in Tennessee, that's where I ought to be, I'll have to go, place that I adore, there's people on the shore they're waving hands,

I'll have to go, If I decide to stay, that Just hear those hands, My heart is in my throat, I'm gal might move a-way, So I think I'll take the boat for home rock-ing like the boat, Ten-nes-see looks might-y good to me to-day I'm on my way, Just hear those to-day And there I'll stay, Don't ask the whis-tles blow, Good-bye I've got to go.
re-as-on why, I'm so glad I could cry.

CHORUS.
Floating a-long,
Floating a-long,
Floating down the riv-er on the

Floating Down The River etc. 4
Alabama, singing a song, singing a song, 'cause I'm feeling so much better since I got your loving letter. Don't stop that boat.

Don't stop that boat, you don't know what my baby wrote, Oh! my honey lamb, stay where you are. I'm floating home to you upon the Al-a-bam.