Gee! I Should Have Been Born A Boy!

Lyric by A. SEYMOUR BROWN

Music by NAT. D. AYER

Marcia

Piano

Voice

Vamp. (still ready)

I never had a brother, Father never had a
I never cared for dresses, And I hate to wear a I was always full of mischief, I could find enough of son. So I had to take the place of a boy in the family.
veil. So I've had to take the place of a boy in the family.
that. So I had to take the place of a boy in the family.

Copyright MCMXII by JEROME H. REMICK & Co., New York & Detroit

Copyright, Canada, MCMXIII by Jerome H. Remick & Co.

had to take the place of a boy in the family.

Ever since a

had to take the place of a boy in the family.

I love to bet on

had to take the place of a boy in the family.

One day I found my little girl I've been considered strong,

to let a girlie play with boys they races just to see the horses run.

I love to see a game of ball bedaddy's watch, twas in the bureau drawer.

And carefully I took it out and say is very wrong. Now don't misunderstand me.

I'm a woman through and cause it's lots of fun.

I hate a woman's gossip and disgust the taste of laid it on the floor.

I hit it with a hammer just to see what was in-through. But I love to pal with boys and do the things that boys will do.

The spirit athletic is the thing appeals to me.

side. When papa saw his Ingersoll course he nearly died.

Gee I Should etc. 4
CHORUS

Every body used to call me Jimmy.

Ever since I was old enough to walk, With dresses to my knees — I used to climb the trees, And all the gaby neighbors used to talk: "My goodness! What'll become of

Gee I Should etc. 4
her when she's a lady?

A girl of her age should be so sweet and coy:"

1. And I know they won't for -

2. And they said I was a

3. I know how the slip - per get the day I smoked a cig - a - rette, Oh! Gee! I brat, I threw a brick and hit a cat.

feels for I stood up to eat my meals.

should have been born a boy.

boy.

Gee I Should etc. 4