EPA now expects to share results with the community in early 2015.

Residential – EPA will provide information packets to residents whose yards were sampled that will present findings and explain next steps.

Non-residential – EPA will share information with the community about sampling on and near the mine and smelter, and summarize results in a report called a Remedial Investigation. EPA will use this report, as well as feedback from the community, to evaluate cleanup options for the mine and smelter.

IRON KING MINE/HUMBOLDT SMELTER SUPERFUND SITE:

Environmental Protection Agency Update: Field Work Data Expected Early 2015

In July 2014, EPA provided information in the Dewey-Humboldt Town Newsletter describing the completion of sampling in residential yards in Dewey-Humboldt, as well as locations on and near the Iron King Mine and Humboldt Smelter. While EPA had anticipated sharing results with the community by this time, we experienced some unexpected delays, and are currently analyzing the data and preparing results to share with community members.

SEVENTH ANNUAL PINEAPPLE CRANBERRY CONTEST

Two years ago, in cooperation with the Community Development Department, we started our Pineapple Cranberry Contest. Since then, we’ve received some fun and great entries. This year, we’re going to take this campaign a step further. We’re going to introduce a new contest, the Pineapple Cranberry Contest in which we will focus on the pineapples. Each contestant will be required to submit a pineapple that is at least 15 pounds. The contestant who submits the largest pineapple will win a grand prize of $1,000. The pineapple may be used for any purpose, including eating, decoration, or art. All entries must be submitted by December 1st. The winner will be announced at the close of the contest.

TOWN HALL NEWS

In December, the Town will be having a simple get together to commemorate the 10th anniversary of its incorporation. The event is at 4 pm on December 2. Please come and join the Mayor and the Council for this special day.

Also on December 4th at 6 pm, December 8th at 10 am, and December 9th, 2014 at 2 p.m. the Town Building Official Terry Ford will be giving some insights regarding the 2012 International Code Council codes (I-Codes). As you know, the Town is currently on the 2006 I-Codes and most surrounding municipalities and Yavapai County have made the transition to the 2012 I-codes. Town Council directed Staff to prepare for adopting the 2012 I-codes with amendments. The actual adoption would likely take place in January or February. Staff wanted to keep the public informed of the changes at the December 4th, 8th and 9th meetings. All three meetings will be at Town Hall.

Town Staff also heard that the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) will be giving summary report in early 2015 for 2014 Superfund project soil sampling. EPA has an article in this issue.

Please stay tuned.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

The Town of Dewey-Humboldt has adopted its Codes in order to protect the public safety and welfare of its residents and visitors to the community. Blight and deteriorating conditions negatively impact neighborhoods by giving a visual impression of neglect, apathy and disregard for property that may also encourage anti-social or criminal behavior. Enforcement of the Codes is important to protect the public welfare and property values of the residents.

The Town’s current Code Enforcement Process is complaint driven by which a Resident of the Town can file a complaint either via mail, in person or via fax. Presently all complaint forms need to be signed by the complainant with contact information for staff to follow up. However, the complainants’ information is not released. When a complaint is received, it is entered into a database system and given to staff for processing.

The first step is to determine if the complaint is valid. Staff will conduct a site visit to make this determination based on whether there is a reasonable belief that probable cause exists. If the complaint is valid and there is a reasonable belief that probable cause exists, Staff will send a Notice of Complaint letter to the property owner requesting the owner call to discuss the issue and/or come into compliance within 10 days. If Staff does not hear from the property owner another site visit is conducted to see if the complaint has been addressed. If the complaint has been addressed then a Notice of Complaint Resolved letter is sent to the property owner and the case is closed. On the other hand, if the complaint has not been addressed then a 1st Notice of Violation is sent to the property owner which allows 30 days for compliance.

In most cases the property owner will contact staff within the first 40 days to address the complaint. In some instances the property owner needs additional time to address the complaint and in the majority of cases this time is granted. In cases of a public safety and welfare issue another solution may be needed to correct the issue in a timely matter.

That is the most typical of Code Enforcement Cases, however there are cases each year whereby the 2nd and 3rd Violation Notices are sent and additional time is given for compliance. Usually each notice allows another 30 to 45 days for compliance. As a result of the repeated notices and waiting time and sometimes unwillingness to correct violations, some cases take over a year to resolve. Although it does not happen often, when it happens, naturally everyone involved becomes frustrated.

As a last resort for compliance, the violation is heard before the Hearing Officer as a Civil Violation or handed over to the Town’s Prosecutor for potential Misdemeanor Criminal charges before the Magistrate. Through the recent review, Staff (including Town in-house Staff, the Legal Counsel and the Magistrate) has confirmed that Town Code allows for Zoning and Building Code violations to be penalized either as a Civil Code infraction or a Misdemeanor offense. Possible penalties vary. Town Code Section stipulates the most severe penalties could be “by a fine not to exceed $2500, by imprisonment for a period of not to exceed six months, by a term of probation not to exceed three years, or by any combination of the fine, imprisonment and probation.”

The Town encourages its Residents to abide by the Codes. Town Staff desires to work with Residents to correct violations without resorting to citations and formal enforcement procedures or imposing any type of penalties. A fair and effective process is necessary for Code Enforcement operation. The vast majority of the cases are resolved within a reasonable time-frame and Town Staff appreciates cooperation, understanding and patience of our Residents.

If you have questions about how the Code Enforcement process works, please contact the Town Manager or the Community Development Officer at 632-7362.

“DON’T SPEND CHRISTMAS ALONE” DINNER

Saint Luke’s Episcopal Church of Prescott will be hosting the 34th Annual “Don’t Spend Christmas Alone” community dinner on Christmas Day. The event will provide a Full Christmas dinner and fellowship for everyone in the Quad City area who may be alone or feel alone on this day. Volunteers will deliver meals and visit the home bound so they too may feel a part of the community celebration.

Last year approximately 750 people were served. Some people were new to the community, others could not be with family members for various reasons, some had no homes, and some just felt alone.

We have created a beautiful way for people to meet, enjoy a Christmas dinner, and make new friends.

Members of other congregations, social service agencies and individuals who have volunteered their services from the community will assist. Fire personnel from Prescott Fire Department and Central Yavapai Fire Department will deliver meals in Prescott and Prescott Valley to the home-bound as they have done in the past and volunteers will deliver meals in Chino Valley.

FESTIVE PINEAPPLE CRANBERRY SALAD
By Pat Mathews
1 20 oz can of pineapple—undrained
2 packages raspberry Jello
1 16 oz can of whole cranberry sauce
1 apple diced
2/3 cups chopped walnuts
Drain pineapple, reserving juice. Set aside 1 tablespoon of pineapple. Add enough cold water to juice to make 3 cups. Pour into sauce pan and bring to a boil. Remove from heat, add dry jello, stir for 2 minutes. Stir in cranberry sauce. Pour into large bowl, refrigerate 1 1/2 hours or until slightly thickened. Stir in pineapple, apple, and walnuts. Pour into mold or leave in bowl. Refrigerate 4 hours until firm. Garnish with reserved pineapple. Makes 14 1/2 cup servings.

THE BLOOD DRIVE IS OVER—FOR THIS YEAR

From Mary Franks

The latest drive was a success—but could have been better. We had several last minute cancellations. The good news is that we collected 23 pints of blood and every pint can help 3 people. So my Blood Heroes, you helped 69 people—and that is something to be proud of! We gave pins to individual blood donors who gave from 18 donations (2 gallons) to a whopping 57 donations (7 gallons). This is an amazing amount for a small community like Dewey-Humboldt. You figure out how many lives may have been saved. I don’t have room to list all of the contributors but the people who made it to the last drive and received their pins are: Mark Blanchfield (who puts out our Blood Drive signs), Richard Miller, Ray Kerbaugh, John and Gretchen O’Hagen, Imogen Dey, Dean Bullock, Rita George Sanchez, Thomas Grimshaw, and Patsy Graves. I still have pins to give out and will do so at the next Blood Drive on February 24, 2015. Put that date on your calendar! This drive is becoming a great community event where you can meet old friends and get to eat homemade baked goods. A huge thanks to Kathy Sankoy and Shirley Williams, and others. I couldn’t have done this without their extensive help and tasty contributions! And Thank You Heroes for all your donations!
