“Rita, My Marguerita”

Lyric by WILL M. HOUGH.

Music by VICTOR HOLLANDER.

Allegro moderato

Ever since I sailed a-Stars are shining in the Copyright, MCMXII, by Jos. W. Stern & Co.

British Copyright Secured.

English Theatre and Music Hall rights strictly reserved.

Depositado conforme a la ley de Republica Mexicana, en el año MCMXII por Jos. W. Stern y Cía. Propietarios Nueva York y Mexico.
way from It a - ly, Mil - lion miles a - part,
dark - ness of your eyes, Stars that shine so bright,

You have had my heart; Ev'ry day's a year and ev'ry night is Thru' the sum-mer night; They will whisper to you, tell-ing how I two, Un - til once more I'm ser-en-ding you; My Sweet heart;

long, To know your heart is beat-ing to my song of you - oo;

poco rit
CHORUS.

Rita——My Marguerita,——Your lips are sweet——or——than any rose:——And ev'ry nights till e——loven, I am sure I'm in heav'en, For I'm lovin' the sweetest flow'r that grows——"I love you!"

Kiss me and say you'll miss me Un til to morrow, as I'll miss you, And we'll go back from this mon ey land, Back to our sun ny land,

Love me, My Mar gu r i te do,