Down In Chattanooga.

By IRVING BERLIN

Moderato

\[
\begin{align*}
&\text{\textit{Good-bye, I'm leaving town,}} \\
&\text{\textit{What's mine you'll find is yours,}} \\
&\text{\textit{I've sent my}} \\
&\text{\textit{My folks keep}} \\
&\text{\textit{baggage down,}} \\
&\text{\textit{To the railway station;}} \\
&\text{\textit{Anyone who will come;}} \\
&\text{\textit{I've had my vacation,}} \\
&\text{\textit{Is entirely welcome,}} \\
&\text{\textit{Before I go away,}} \\
&\text{\textit{And you'll be glad to stay,}} \\
&\text{\textit{This much I want to say,}} \\
&\text{\textit{Where healthy chickens lay,}}
\end{align*}
\]

Copyright 1913 by Waterson, Berlin & Snyder Co. 112 W. 36th St. N.Y.
International Copyright Secured.
Copyright Canada 1913 by Waterson, Berlin & Snyder Co.
I would like to have you call on me some day.
Sixty cents a dozen eggs, The live-long day.

CHORUS

When you're down in Tennessee, Stop at Chattanooga,

Stop at Chattanooga, Don't forget to call on me,

Down in Chattanooga, Down in Chattanooga, Accept my

Down In Chattanooga.
invitation, You can make yourself at home,

I'll meet you at the station, With a "Giddy-up, Giddy-up"

Napoleon, You'll find hospitality,

Down in Chattanooga, Down in Chattanooga,

Down In Chattanooga, 4
You’re just as welcome as you can be,

You’ll find a menu, a menu, With a lot of things to eat upon it when you, Come to Chattanooga,

Chattanooga, Tennessee. See.