Five Little Pages.

Lyric by
Wm. Cary Duncan.

Music by
Wm. Frederick Peters.

Moderato.

Piano.

Round her graceful neck as white as snow a necklace of pearls will twine, On her Queenly forehead a flashing row of diamonds pure will shine! And all in a row we shall stand just so for our

Costumes of white and blue, And as

Dear Little Pages etc. 4 ev'ry one bows low—well watch with eyes a—glow, And won—der if we'll ev—er be court—tiers too!

Refrain, rall.

Five lit—tie pag—es are we, Ev—'ry one of us as vain as can be, to proudly bear in our care jew—els

Dear Little Pages etc. 4
rare for the Empress fair! Our daintiness caskets of gold Rubies red and bluest sapphires hold

-the baubles bright that the Empress has chosen to-night to wear. Five little wear.

Dear Little Pages etc. 4