HAPPY LITTLE COUNTRY GIRL

By IRVING BERLIN

Moderato

I know a girl,
Birds on their way,

Sweet little pearl,
Doesn't know a thing

Linger to stay,
Long enough to sing to her

Lives on a farm, As she goes by,
Where nature's arm, Roes all sigh,
Wraps around her all, How they envy her day; Ear-ly to bed, Ear-ly each day, Ear-ly to rise, cheeks; Ear-ly to bed, Ear-ly each day, Crowing a-way,

Keeps the light of Hea-ven shi-ning in her eyes, Happi-ly she spends the Mist-er Rooster wakes her and he seems to say, "Dress yourself for goodness hours, A-mong the but-ter-flies and flow'rs, We'll all be glad when you a-wake,"

Happy Little Country Girl 4
CHORUS

1. 2. Happy, happy, happy little country girl,

Much too good for any Duke or Earl,

Simple dress and ten cent ribbon round her curl,

She's a beautiful lady.

Happy Little Country Girl 4
Reuben lover, loves her to her finger tips.
Nine o'clock her tired eyes refuse to peep.
Loves her kisses just like honey drips.
Then into her cozy bed she'll creep. She doesn't taste a drug-store on her ruby lips.
doesn't miss a minute of her beauty sleep.
