In My Garden Of Eden For Two.

Lyric and Music
by E. RAY GOETZ.

Valse Moderato

It appears that love songs are in fashion—So I've fashioned a Its the regular style of a ditty—That is written by love song for you, For the boy who would tell of his passion, one who's love sick, But the sentiments so very pretty,

It will tell more than words often do, I think That its flaws I hope you will not pick, Tho' I I've hit a theme that is novel though it harks back to when love was do know that I am no poet and there's no doubt you know it as young well

When Moth-er Eve loved A-dam first But just to show me how you feel and first my

my and just to show me how you feel and worst and so how you like my song's appeal when I

CHORUS

In my Gar-den of Ed-en for two, All for two, all for two, In an or-chard of pink we will woo, Through each pink af-ter-noon in the pink month of June, Where the apple trees bloss-om around, All a-round, all a-round, We'll be
