Sit Down
You’re Rocking The Boat.

Words by
Wm. JEROME and GRANT CLARKE.

Music by JEAN SCHWARTZ.

Allegretto moderato.

Johnny was a sailor.
Mary married Johnny.

Cook.
That.

Johnny took her sailing.
They lived in a houseboat.

Johnny tried to kiss her.
Lots of little sailors.

Copyright MCMXIII by Harry Williams Music Co. 154 West 48th St. New York
And she hollered when he tried to take her on his knee.
And they yell at John when he comes sailing home at four.

CHORUS.
Sit down, sit down, sit down you're rocking the boat. That's what she said each time he tried to kiss her; sang the chorus of the song to Father. This is no Pullman. We're glad to see you.

car- just an-chor where you are. Sailors have been known to carry Dad, but Mother will be mad. Be sure and don't wake Ma- ma up.

Sit Down etc. 3
man-y thing too far; Sit down, sit down, sit down you're rocking the boat.

or you'll get in bad. Sit down, sit down, sit down you're rocking the boat.

Remember that I just came out to float; It's not the first time I've been out, My mother taught me how to shout. Sit down, sit down, sit down you're rocking the boat.

boat. What's that blondehair doing on your coat? Don't make a noise she's gone to bed, We'll get an ice-bag for your head. Sit boat.