When The Honeymoon Stops Shining

Words by
HAROLD ATTERIDGE

Music by
JEAN SCHWARTZ

Andante moderato

VAMP Till Ready

I was married but at last I'm free,
Once two lovers in a small canoe,

There'll be no more wedding bells for me;
In a love boat only built for two;

Copyright transferred MCMXIII to Jerome & Schwartz Pub. Co. New York
Copyright MCMXIII by Jean Schwartz
International Copyright secured
All Rights reserved
For I've found the matrimony sea
Tried a friend into their little ship

Isn't deep, but shallow as can be.
And the friend spoiled both lovers' trip.

The little wedding bell can often ring your knell;
Entrance of a friend can make the love joys end:

CHORUS (Slow)

When the honeymoon stops shining Life is not a dream.

When the Honeymoon-3
Life is not all honey blisses, roses sweet and lovely kisses;

There are signs of storm a showing, when in Cupid's boat you're rowing,

When the honeymoon refuses to shine.