When The Whole World Has Gone Back On You
(Come To Me)

Words by EDWARD MADDEN

Music by
GUS EDWARDS

Copyright MCMXIII by JEROME H. REMICK & CO., New York & Detroit
Copyright, Canada, MCMXII by Jerome H. Remick & Co.

Valse Tempo

Now my fool's dream is past since you've When you shine like a pearl in the

told me at last, That your love could no longer be true;
Mad merrily whirled, Where they break human hearts while they sing,

And the things you've confessed are the things that I guessed, But I
When the look in your eyes has grown sad and grown wise, And your

Performing Rights Reserved
could not believe it of you. Tho' at last we must laugh hides a sob with its ring. There will come a gray part, there will live in my heart, Dreams of you as you dawn, when your beauty has gone And you show not a once used to be; For I cannot forget you were charm one can see. Then old mem'ries will burn, when your true when we met And some day you will come back to me. lesson you learn If you long to return, come to me.

When the whole world etc 4
CHORUS

When the whole world has gone back on you, Come to me,

When you've learnt it is best to be true. True to me you may be.

When the whole world etc 4
romance is thro' and nobody wants you, When repent-ance brings no sym-pa-thy, When the whole world has gone back on you. Come to me.

When the whole world etc 4